HOUSE AND LOT OF LAND!

UNDER AND BY VIRTUE of a writ of fieri facias issued out of the Circuit Court for Kent county, Maryland, at the suit of Rebecca Dorsey, Marion Chambers and Steward Dorsey, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Henry T. Chambers, and to me directed, I have entered upon, seized and taken into execution all the right, title, interest and estate of the said Henry T. Chambers, in and to the following described property to wit:

All That House and Lot of Land, with improvements, situated in the Seventh Election District of Kent county, Md., on the east side of the public road leading from the town of Lankford to the town of Pomona, adjoining the lands of James H. Baker, Robert Ford and Gertrude Ward,

Containing 2½ ACRES OF LAND, More or Less, and being the same land which was conveyed to Harvey S. Kennard by Joseph S. Trew and Ann Rebecca Trew by deed dated April 25, 1902, and recorded in Liber J. T. D. No. 6, folio 325, one of the land record books for Kent county, Md.

And I hereby give notice that on

between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, in front of the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, I will sell to the highest bidder for cash all the right, title, interest and estate of the said Henry T Chambers, subject to all prior liens and claims, in and to the said property, to satisfy said writ, debt, interest and costs due and to become due thereon.

LOCAL MATTERS

Engagement Announced.—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anthony, of Queen Annes, near Chester bridge announce the engagement of their daughter, Fannie, to Mr. J. S. Kreeger, one of Chestertown's prominent and successful jewelers.

Road Engineer Resigned.—Mr. Wm. D. Hines, who for the past 18 months has held the position of road engineer of Cecil county, at a salary of $1500 per year, has tendered his resignation to the Board of County Commissioners. A bill has been passed in the Legislature repealing the law by which a road engineer was appointed for the county.

Why a Barn Burned Down.—Jim McNally, an employe on Andrew W. Vansant's farm, near Galena, has confessed to being the cause of the fire which burned the stable and seven horses on his farm last week. He says it was accidental and the fire marshal so construed it. He used a horse and, forgetting to remove the harness, returned at night to do so, struck a match and accidently ignited the straw.

Farmers' Institute.—Dr. Richard S. Hill, director of Farmers' Institutes, has arranged a farmers' institute for Kennedyville for Monday March 11th, 10 to 4 P. M. and for Chestertown for Tuesday March 12, and for Sassafras Friday March 8th, at same hours. The subjects to be discussed will be sugar corn, field corn, good seed, strawberries, canteloupes, tomatoes, dairying, fertilizers, marketing, poultry husbandry, feeding for eggs, organization, and alfalfa.

Judge Atkins indorsed.—At a meeting of the Democratic members of the bar association of Talbot county Associate Judge William H. Atkins, of Easton, was unanimously indorsed for the Democratic nomination for chief judge of the Second Judicial Circuit of Maryland, to succeed Judge James Alfred Pearce, whose term of office expires in November, 1912. There is no member of the Talbot bar who is not actively behind Judge Atkins' candidacy.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

¶Wednesday was St. Valentine's Day. Did you get one?

¶Graham & Clements have instituted a novel advertising feature for this year. It is something very unique in the mercantile world, and you should read it, and get posted.

¶A delegation representing 100 patrons of the colored school in Chestertown appeared before the school board on Tuesday asking for a new $5,000 school building for Chestertown.

¶It has been circulated that several of Mr. John Shauber's children are ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Shauber states that this is absolutely incorrect, and asks us to correct the rumor.

¶Mr. Julian T. Power, Millington's well-known pharmacist and optometrist will devote every day except Saturdays and Sundays to testing eyes and fitting glasses. Mr. Power is a skillful and competent pharmacist and optometrist, and enjoys a large practice.

¶One day last week among the freight hauled by expressman Matthews, was a valuable horse shipped from New York. The charges amounted to $50. The animal was a promising filly which Mr. John T. Moffett, the well-known breeder, purchased at the Madison Square Garden, N. Y., sale.

¶It is reported that Mrs. A. P. Matthews has sold her property, corner Cross street and Maple avenue to Mr. J. W. Kirby, tombstone and monument man, who will continue his large business there. It is also reported that Mrs. Matthews and family will remove to Florida with her brother in the spring.

¶Mr. James S. Bradley, after a successful business career in this town for 35 years, will retire from business as soon as he can dispose of his goods and rent his store room. Mr. Bradley is one of our most highly esteemed and prosperous merchants, and he has arrived at that period in life when he feels justified in retiring from the arduous pursuits of a strenuous business occupation. We do not blame him in the least.

¶A public meeting will be held in Chestertown next Monday evening for the purpose of instituting a Chautauqua during the summer here. Authorities of Swarthmore College are behind the movement, which has some delightful features, and our people are urged to attend the meeting. If you will read the three-column advertisement on page 6 you will understand what the purport of this meeting is. It is worthy of consideration.

¶Boys, you had better wake up and get your fast horses and colts ready. For the boys around Worton are getting ready. Mr. Samuel Loller is jogging a very fine looking filly. Mr. Sutton Tarbutton has another fine looking filly, and Mr. J. T. Moffett landed a very fine and promising looking filly at Worton by express which he purchased at the speed sale held at Madison Square Garden, N. Y. He also has another fine filly by Nutwood Prince, 2.28¼, dam Nannie Heaths, the dam of Black Spider, 2.19¼, which is very promising.

Kennedyville Items.

Kennedyville Grange held their regular monthly afternoon meeting on Saturday last. There was a large attendance and an interesting meeting. There were four names proposed at the meeting and other names given during the evening. Miss Mary Baxter gave a fine recitation, Miss Catherine Roe, by request, repeated a recitation she had given at a previous meeting; Mrs. Wm. T. Baxter gave a very nice reading, Mr. John R. Bennett gave a reading in reference to Parcels Post, W. T. Hague, by request, repeated a solo he sang at the entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid Society. At the close of the business and literary meeting, the large attendance partook of a fine supper prepared by the ladies. The regular meeting will be held on Monday night, the 19th.

The Junior C. E. Society gave a pie and box social in Weer's Hall on Wednesday night. There was a large attendance of young people as well as quite a number of the older folks. Boxes sold as high as one dollar and sixty cents. The evening was a success financially and socially, everybody enjoying themselves.

Rev. Mr. Mullineaux was called away this week to the bedside of a beloved brother who has been a sufferer for some time.

Miss Katie Hessner is at home, she is just recovering from several weeks of sickness. We are glad to know she is improving.

Miss Agnes Estes spent several days of the past week with friends in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othoson spent several days with relatives near Sassafras.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

Gov. Goldsborough has sent to the Senate the big appointments for Baltimore city as follows:
