HE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES, MILLINGTON, MD.

SPECIAL ANNOUCEMENT

On account of the extremely cold weather, some of my patrons were not able to attend the great ANNIVERSARY SALE. and in order to give every one of my friends an opportunity to participate in the great MONEY SAVING event, we will extend this sale until the end of this month.

NOTICE!

Some people are apt to form a conclusion that because the prices in this adv. are so low that we'll be unable to furnish the goods at the advertised prices. The FACTS are that we never advertise an article unless we have it in stock. It may have happened to you to attend a sale even on the first day and ask for a certain article as advertised and the clerk would tell you sold out. If we advertise it, we have it.

This Sale Will be Continued Until the End of This Month.

Dollars saved are dollars earned. The purchasing power of your dollar is what you make it. If we show you how you can get $2.00 actual value for only one, it's your own fault if you don't take advantage of it. Are you contented to pay regular price for your clothes, when you can come here and make your dollars go twice as far.

CHARLEY MITCHELL SOLD

Famous Race Horse Raised at Aberdeen, and Trained by Herman Tyson, Brings Record Price at Madison Square Garden, New York.

The mid-winter horse auction at Madison Square Garden, New York, closed last week after a successful sale, at which high prices were paid for the excellent horseflesh offered on the block, and the last day of the sale witnessed the highest prices and most spirited bidding.

C. K. G. Billings paid the record price for the sale when he bid in Charley Mitchell, 2.04¼, for $4,500. Charley Mitchell, 8 years old, chestnut gelding, consigned by Louis Neidhart, of Newark, was the champion trotting gelding, of 1911, and won 10 firsts, 2 seconds, 1 third and a fourth out of 14 starts last year. Mr. Neidhart claims no trotter in the country save Uhlan can beat him in a heat race.

Charley Mitchell is well-known in this section, having been raised by Senator Andrew, of Harford county, and trained by Herman Tyson. The horse began his racing career on the half-mile tracks of the Maryland-Virginia Circuit, and raced one season at Tolchester. He was in the stable of Tommy Murphy, the Grand Circuit driver, who also handles the ribbons over R. T. C., the famous plow horse, and he won the great majority of the races in which he started last season, his last race being in the $1000 free-for-all trot at Laurel, Md., last October in two straight heats. Charley Mitchell is a handsome chestnut sorrel with white points, strong gaited, and he bids fair to be the champion free-for-all trotter the coming season.

Firebug in the County.

The barn, carriage house and stable with 800 bushels of corn on the John P. Cochran, Jr., farm, near Galena, was burned on Sunday night, causing a loss of $2,000. The blaze was discovered by a colored farm-hand upon his return from church. The hand awakened Mr. Cochran and they released all the horses and stock. This property adjoins the farm of Mr. Andrew Vansant, who was burned out last week. The circumstances surrounding these two fires are such as to require investigation. It is believed that the origin of both fires is an incendiary who is wanted for burglary in that section.

A third fire to occur within a week destroyed the outbuildings on the farm of Mr. James Donahoe, near Massey, on Monday morning at 11 o'clock. It is supposed that this fire originated from natural causes. Mr. Donahoe's loss on his outbuildings is quite heavy, but is partially covered by insurance, as are also the outbuildings on the Cochran farm. Both Mr. Cochran and Mr. Donahoe have made arrangements for temporary buildings for housing their stock, and new buildings will be erected as soon as the weather permits. It is quite probable that the State Fire Marshall will be called to investigate these fires.

IN MEMORIAM.

"There is no flock, however watched and tended,
But one dead lamb is there;
There is no fireside howsoe'er defended
But has one vacant chair!

It would seem as though these words were verified when on Friday, Jan. 26, God, in his infinite, unfathomable way, saw fit to remove from our midst, one of our most popular girls, Agnes M. Clough.

Only a short while ago, it seems she was a happy school-girl. What a sweet girl she was with her pretty face and form and her winsome ways! Obedient and diligent at school, kind and loving with her playmates, she won not only the love and commendation of her teacher, but the love and trust of her schoolmates, and of all with whom she came in contact.

She will be missed, not only out of her mother's flock, but also from her own home, which she leaves desolate, with a sorrowing husband and a motherless babe.

Greatly will she be missed also from the social gatherings of the community, among which she could always be found.

Her husband and parents can only await the coming sunrise on the mountain peaks of a beautiful immortality, while the tender babe, for whose sake she surrendered her sweet life, will be taught to look forward to life's Eternal morning, when mother-love will claim its own, and God will not say "nay".

BY HER TEACHER.
