Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Westcott announce the engagement of their daughter, Ellen Louisa to Mr. Wilbur Draper Gill, of Nashville, Tenn. The wedding will take place early in May.

Debate.—At the regular meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society last Saturday evening the following subject was debated: Resolved, That the education of the negro should be industrial rather than liberal. On the affimative were Messrs. J. E. Harris and Wheatley. On the negative were Messrs. Jones and Simmons. The judges decided unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

Debate in P. O. S. of A.—An interesting debate will take place at the meeting of the P. O. S. of A. in Fraternal Hall on Tuesday evening next. The question is Resolved, That women shall be allowed to vote. The affirmative will be handled by Messrs. John C. Davis, Wm. F. Malin and J. Frank Wheatley, while Prof. J. L. Smyth, Wm. B. Coleman and J. B. McIntire will tell them why women should not vote.

Kent Boy Making Good.—Mr. W. Creighton Wallis, a Chestertown boy who learned the printer's trade in the TRANSCRIPT office, sent us a postal card containing a cut of his handsome new apartment house named "The Wallis" after the owner. Mr. Wallis and his brother, Mr. Hugh Wallis, for a number of years have been engaged in business in Washington, D. C., and they have made a splendid financial success of their business. The Wallis is a handsome building situated on Lamont street, and the owner will be glad we are quite sure to see any of his Eastern shore friends when they come to Washington.

Mr. James T. DeCorse has rented his farm near Fancy school to one of Mr. James Coleman's sons, who will take possession as soon as Mr. DeCorse disposes of his stock, which he will do about March 18th.

The Stam drug store, and the Toulson drug store, as well as Thomas S. Bordley's large clothing store display windows are beautifully decorated in Washington birthday decorations.

Neavitt Stafford has accepted a position with the Stam drug company vice Mr. Webster Hague "graduated." Mr. Hague will engage in other business, in which we wish him much success.

Mr. Samuel Doudy, of near Galt, met with an accident last Saturday, while driving a mule team the mules became frightened threw him off the wagon and bruised him in several places.

Capt. Benj. Wheeler, an aged and well-known man of Betterton, was taken very sick last Friday morning in Mr. Howard Turner's office and had to be taken home in a team. We hope the Captain will soon be better.

The building on High street formerly occupied by the late Dr. Charles P. Gilpin is being remodeled by contractor George H. Cannon, and will be converted into a modern residence, which will be for rent when completed.

Many of the fruit growers on the Maryland-Delaware Peninsula believe that there will be a large crop of all kinds of fruit because of the fact that the severe winter weather has kept the sap from rising, which will save the fruit from injury.

Many of the farmers of Worton have contracted with the Bertie E. Tull Freighting Company to grow tomatoes for $9.60 per ton, baskets furnished. This price is said to be better than $10. The farmers in Broad Neck are also contracting for $9.60 and baskets.

The B. S. Ford made her first trip from Baltimore to Chestertown on Thursday evening since January 4th, reaching here about 8 o'clock. She was delayed at Rock Hall for two hours by heavy freight, but had no difficulty in making the trip. The blowing of the whistle was a welcome sound to the people along the route.

The first thunderstorm of the year visited this section on Wednesday. There was a terrific dowpour of rain, followed by a brisk South wind which caused a very high tide. The wind shifted to northwest by Thursday morning sending the thermometer scurrying down below freezing, the wind blowing a gale all day.

Some one broke into Mr. James Brice's residence some nights ago, gaining an entrance through the cellar. There was a general ransacking of desks, bureau drawers, clothes presses, etc., but it is not believed that anything of value was taken. The friend in charge of the property is prepared for a second attempt to break in, and the officers are keeping a close watch for the guilty party.

The big automobile show in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore, this week, attracted big crowds. The Maxwell and Ford cars, of which Messrs. J. H. Sides and Jacob F. Thompson, respectively are local agents, were among the most popular cars on exhibition, and attracted much attention not only on account of their fine workmanship, but also because of the splendid records which both these cars hold for endurance and speed qualities.

Mt. Vernon Banquet.

The sixty-fifth annual banquet and reunion of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society of Washington College was held at the Voshell House on Thursday evening, about 75 members and guests being present. The following menu was most excellently served by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, proprietors of the hotel:

Chincoteague Oysters on half shell
Gherkins Olives Oysterettes
Chicken Consomme Croutons
Boiled Rock Hollandaise
Potato Balls Cheese Straws
Roast Turkey
Cranberry Sauce French Peas
Hominy Celery
Maryland Biscuit Potato Rolls
Chicken Salad
Mayonnaise Dressing
Roman Punch
Harlequin Cream
Assorted Cakes
Mints Assorted Nuts
Tea Coffee
Cigars Cigarettes

Mr. Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., was master of ceremonies, and performed the duties of toast-master in a most graceful and pleasing manner. Those who responded to toasts and their subjects were:

Debating—Benjamin A. Johnson.
Leap Year—J. Lewin Burris.
Washington, Past and Present—T. D. Bowers.
Washington Ideals—Dr. James W. Cain.

Splendid music was furnished by Mr. John C. Thomas, baritone, of Baltimore, with Mr. James Bacchus accompanist. The evening was a most enjoyable one, and all wished Mt. Vernon, the oldest literary society in the State, much success and a large increase in membership.

The Chautauqua Meeting.

The meeting in the interest of the Organization of a Chautauqua for the summer which was to have been held last Monday evening in Firemen's Hall, has been postponed until next Monday evening in Firemen's Hall when all citizens of the town, ladies as well as gentlemen, interested in the educational and social uplift of the community are cordially invited to be present, and assist in securing this movement for this town. Dr. James W. Cain, president of Washington College, superintendant of the schools, Milton Melvin, and other prominent citizens have been interviewed in regard to the organization of such a movement, and they have given it their hearty indorsement, and will assist materially in its advancement. It is probable that the beautiful college campus—an ideal spot for such summer diversions—will be selected as the place for holding the Chautauqua, and our citizens will be given the opportunity to hear some of the finest lecturers including Richard Pearson Hobson, the hero of the Merrimac, splendid musical organizations, and platform orators of national reputation. Rev. A. E. Turner, president of Hastings College, will be present on Monday evening to address the meeting, and our citizens, ladies and gentleman, are urged to attend. The full meaning and scope of the Chautauqua is explained on page 3 in a three column advertisement.
