Dear Sir,

Forestof. Necdnwd.
Decem. 24th 1786

(30)

Your favor of the 26th Novemb. ~~the~~ under cover from Mr. Ridley did not ~~get~~ come to my hands till the last Evening & I had previously answered Mr. Carroll's Letter on the ~~same~~ subject ~~of my debt to you~~ ~~& expressed these~~ ~~sentiments~~ — the scarcity of the Winter Liquor has been a source of disappointment hitherto but you may depend my dear Sir if the Weather should not prove too uncommonly bad that produce cannot be carried to Market & will pay from £500. to £1750. by the last of May & if Mr. Carroll to whom I write again after immediately shall have ~~got~~ I will ~~for~~ you a larger sum — I will regret of

MdHS 1974 [775-30]