After the regular business meeting of the Still Pond Grange on Tuesday the doors were thrown open to the public and the eight "tomato" committes previously appointed reported that packers at Still Pond, Kennedyville, Lynch, Worton, etc., has agreed to contract for $10, while the canneries at Barnard's and those operated by Messrs. Howard Turner and Harvey Moore are offering $9.60. The entire literary programme was devoted to the life of Washington, and each member gave an impression of the life of Washington.
