-ter settled to our mutual satisfaction — and as soon as Mr Cooke enables me, to give you the information which you want, I shall most gladly communicate it — I have wrote to him lately, but have not yet received his answer.

As you have the premises in your possession, I hope you will not suffer any material injury, should the title be delayed a few months longer; especially as I am doing all that is in my power to remove the impediment — And for the same reasons I hope Sir you will not take any measures which may create more trouble & be productive of injury to
