LOCAL MATTERS

President Cain Honored.—One of the important features of the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the University of Pittsburg was the conferring of honorary degrees upon a number of prominent men. Among those honored with the degree of Doctor of Laws was President James W. Cain, of Washington College, and President Thomas Fell, of St. John's College. Presidents Cain and Fell responded briefly, thanking the institutions for the honor.

Mt. Vernon Debate.—At the regular meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society last Saturday evening, the following questions were discussed in parliamentary debates: Resolved, "That the West Offers More Opportunity for Success Than the East." Resolved, "That Darwin's Theory of Evolution is Correct." The supporters of the affirmative gained the decision in the first question, while in the second the supporters of the negative were victorious.

New Telephone Line.—On February 24th, a new Rural Telephone Company was organized to connect with Chestertown, Md., exchange. The subscribers to this new line are Henry Brown, W. R. Startt, Miss Bertha Woodmender, S. L. Weller and Robert R. Walbert, who was appointed agent for the company. This company will operate in the vicinity of Quaker Neck and will be known as the Mount Vernon Telephone Company. This makes the fourth line, with twenty-six stations organized in this neighborhood in the past nine months.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

Four of our sportsmen killed 43 fine blackhead ducks off Skipper's point yesterday morning.

The big crow blackbirds and robins the harbingers of spring, made their appearance in Chestertown trees on Sunday.

Hog cholera is again becoming prevalent in certain sections of the county. We urge our farmers to try the hog serum.

The steamer Corsica made her first trip to Chestertown on Thursday since the ice blockade.

Mr. R. Snowden Thomas has sold his flock of fine pigeons to Mr. Charles Kirby, and will engage more extensively in the raising of poultry.

Mr. Hogan, a prominent farmer of near Buck Neck, has lost two valuable horses from influenza this week and has another one sick.

Mrs. Frank Meredith, sister of Mr. Denny Hoffecker, of Chestertown, and of Mrs. J. A. Russell, of Chester, Pa., died at her home in Chester, Pa., on Thursday.

Mr. W. Price Milby, local station agent, will be transferred to Trappe, Talbot county, March 1st. He will be succeeded here by Mr. Legg, from Marydel.

The well-known comedians Startt & Skirven have signed to play in the musical comedy, Friday, March 8th, Stam's Hall and not Firemen's Hall, as is noted in church notes.

National Bank Examiner Gilbert investigated the condition of the Third National Bank on Wednesday, and he found every department of the work in fine shape. The bank has a most interesting statement on page 1.

Samuel T. Shepherd, of New London, of Cecil county, has purchased Mr. Quimby Smith's 105 acre farm, near Kennedyville, the latter buying the former's place, which he will shortly occupy.

The Md. Del. & Va. Ry. Co. has a change of schedule in this issue which is important, to take effect March 11th. Steamer leaves Chestertown at 7 A. M. instead of 8 A. M. and Baltimore at 1 P. M. instead of 11 A. M. on the usual days. No change in Corsica's schedule.

The Philadelphia North American paid its respects to the Egg Trust in a scathing article one day this week. The egg market is in the han is of a crowd of sharks in Philadelphia and New York, who are trying to beat the American poultrymen out of their honest money. The business should be investigated.

Revs. F. T. Little, F. H. Mullineaux and R. L. Shipley, all Methodist Protestant ministers, were on the train last Friday returning from Baltimore. When the train reached New Castle, Del., it struck and killed an aged mail carrier. The occurrence was purely accidental.

Messrs. A. S. Turner, Wm. T. Nicholson, Wm. G. Smyth, Barclay Kilbourn, Robert G. Nicholson and J. F. Thompson attended the big Auto Show in the Fifth Regiment Armory, Baltimore last week, and there may be several more new machines in Kent than there are at present after awhile.

One of the oldest trees in the town, the one in front of the residence of Dr. Charles W. Whaland on High street, has been removed during the week by Mr. Stafford and force of workmen. This tree is over 100 years old and was planted by the grandfather of the late Wm. S. Walker.

Mr. Marcus Asher, the fur king, shipped to market on Monday morning 3000, mink, muskrat, skunk, fox, raccoon and opossum hides, for which he received good prices. Mr. Asher says it was as fine a lot of furs as he ever bought, and several of the raccoon hides were the largest he ever saw.

Some one broke open the alms box in the vestibule of Emmanuel P. E. Church on Tuesday afternoon but failed to get anything, as the rector, Rev. Dr. H. B Martin had been there previously and removed the coin. Hereafter if the thief wants to steal he will have to go farther than the vestibule of the church.

The question—Resolved, That women should be allowed to vote was discussed by members of the P. O. S. of A., at their meeting last Tuesday. The women lost because they didn't have the right kind of fellows to defend their rights. John C. Davis, J. Frank Wheatley and Wm. F. Malin are no ladies men compared with Wm. B. Coleman, Prof. L. J. Smyth and J. B. McIntire. No wonder the poor women lost out.

A tablet to the memory of William P. Anderson, of Cecilton, a member of the class of 1910 of St. John's College, Annapolis, who was drowned in the Sassafras river, near Fredericktown, in last October, has been placed on a wall of the chapel in McDowell Hall, at the college. Leonard E. Kolmer, of Baltimore, a class-mate of the deceased, presented the tablet which was accepted by President Fell, on behalf of the faculty.

Mrs. S. E. Ford appeared before the Orphans' Court on Tuesday and renounced her right to administer upon the estate of her late husband, Dr. S. E. Ford, in favor of Mr. H. H. Klinefelter. Dr. Ford, we understand, left no will.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman has administered 27 doses of Anti-Tocsin to prevent influenza which is prevalent among horses in the county, and 40 doses of hog cholera serum for the prevention of cholera which has attacked a number of farmer's hogs near town again. Among those who have sick horses are Prof. Milton Melvin, County Commissioner Harry Nicols, George Hendrickson, Lemuel Leager, and Mr. Hogan. Among those who have sick hogs are Messrs. George Hendrickson and Harry Nicols.
