THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall Chestertown Md.

BETWEEN the ante-election statements and the school board appointments of Governor Goldsborough there is the widest inconsistency. Governor Goldsborough sought the people's votes to a very large extent upon, as every one was told, the sincere statement that he would use his best endeavors to take the schools of the State out of politics, and put them upon the high plane of the greatest efficiency. A study of the appointments which he has made in many, if not all the counties, discloses the fact that his appoinments as members of our county school boards are leading politicians of the Republican party. Such appointments lay Governor Goldsborough open to the very just and significant criticism that by his appointments of members of the school boards he has paved the way for making the schools of our counties a personal political machine of his appointees, who will use the schools to advance their own political interests. This in turn furnishes the opportunity, or rather, a good and sufficient reason either for the Senate to refuse to confirm such partisan political appointments, or for the passage by the Maryland Legislature of a bill providing for bi-partisan school boards, and putting the ante-election promises and statements of Governor Goldsborough to the proper test. In view of these appointments and the Governor's ante-election statements he would be discredited in the eyes of the intelligent and right-thinking people if he vetoed a bill providing for bi-partisan school boards, and insisted upon the confirmation of such partisan political appointments to our school boards, as it is charged that he has made in every county in the State. A Democratic Senate would be absolutely justified in refusing to confirm such appointments, when the motive behind the appointments seems to be so palpable.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

Gov. Harmon, of Ohio, will address the Maryland Legislature on the afternoon of March 6th, and Gov. Wilson, of New Jersey, will speak on the evening of the following day.

Both Messrs. Beck and Miller have been detained from attendance upon their duties at Annapolis the past week on account of sickness.

Delegate Charles L. Miller's bill to amend the charter of Rock Hall has been ingrossed for a third reading.

Delegate Walker's bill providing for the surrender of the Chester river bridge by the counties of Kent and Queen Anne's to the Good Roads Commission has passed the house and is now in the Senate.

Both Senator Goslin, of Caroline and Senator Dodson, of Talbot, have introduced bills providing for the construction of State roads through incorporated towns. These bills differ in that that of Senator Dodson's provides for the work to be done by the town authorities, while the Goslin bill provides that the work be done by the State Road Commission.

The bill to repeal the Gibbs Road Law for Kent county is sleeping in the Senate. It has passed the House, and how much longer it will sleep remains with Mr. Beck.

Senator Harper's bill providing for Presidential preference primaries is growing in favor, and the popular demand is so strong for it that it is now believad it will pass although certain politicians are opposing it.

Mr. Beck has introduced a bill regulating the shooting of wild fowl on Chester river.

Delegate Harris has introduced the following bills: To amend the charter of Betterton, to amend the laws regulating insurance, to further define duties of Treasurer of Kent county, to extend the current oyster season.

Mr. Beck took an active part in the examination of the Public Service Commission, whose witness was Dr. Herring, on Thursday. Mr. Beck is counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and we shall have more to say about Mr. Beck's attack upon the commission in its relation to a recent event in Kent county later.

Church Work.

Other church notes found on page 3.

A series of special meetings will begin on Sunday night in Christ M. P. Church. It is hoped that these meetings will be largely attended and much good result from them.

At a meeting of the members of Christ M. P. Church following the prayer service on Thursday evening, Mr. Thomas D. Bowers was elected delegate and Mr. Charles N. Satterfield alternate to represent Christ M. P. Church at the annual conference which will be held in Laurel, Del., the second week in April. While no instructions were given the delegate, it is the unanimous wish of the members and friends of the Church that Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, the pastor, be returned to the charge for another year. Dr. Little's work has been very successful here, and he is popular with his members and the people generally.

Our Advertisers.

A SURE THING.—If a man wants a light weight suit, and wants something to give him service as well as style, no other merchant in Chestertown can supply his wants better than the hustling firm of Bordley & Sons. See their advertisement this week and you will know why we tell you this. Measures will be taken by an expert on March 8th and 9th and will have goods made before Easter.

We call the attention of our readers this morning to the advertisement of Mr. H. S. Jewell, Lynch's popular lime, coal, grain and feed dealer. Mr. Jewell enjoys a fine trade, and handles only the best grades of lime and coal, and gives the best quotations on grain and hay. His yards at Lynch are always well stocked, and he will give prompt attention to all orders.

After stock taking bargains at Abe Cohen's big store in Sandy Bottom. Get in the procession and take your country produce along.

Herman Blackway has a sterling brand of coffee, fine smoked sausage and provisions of all kinds at popular prices. Call him over the phone.

Harry B. Rote, the jeweler, has a full line of electrical supplies, in Tungsten burners, electric bulbs, etc. He also has the kind of clocks that keep good time, as well as a quantity of fine chinaware which he is offering at sacrafice prices.

Read B. S. Sutton's big bargains for March. Spring goods are arriving by carloads and Mr. Sutton is offering them at popular prices.

Ship your poultry and eggs to O. V. Handy & Bros., Philadelphia. Their advertisement will give you directions and best of references.

Read the various opportunities offered in H. F. Jefferson & Bro's change of advertisement on page 8. See what are the prevailing styles for spring and summer.

You are invited to attend the spring tailoring opening and fashion show at Vansant & Newsome's big store on Friday and Saturday, March 8 and 9. A representative of the Hopkins Tailoring Company will be there on those dates. He needs no introduction, you know him, and you know the character of his work.
