CASH STORE--JOHN SCHOFIELD,
STILL POND, MARYLAND.

Kilbourn & Bramble's
FAIRLEE, MD.

The Big Fairlee Merchants are in Baltimore this week purchasing their large stock of Spring and Summer goods. Their adv. on page 2 will tell you all about it next week.

Kilbourn & Bramble,
FAIRLEE, MARYLAND.

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hurlock, a prominent young farmer of Queen Annes, was taken to a Baltimore hospital on Monday for an operation for appendicitis. The operation was successful, and we are very glad to state that Mr. Hurlock is improving.

Mrs. Moore and little son, of Pittsburgh, are guests of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Barroll, at Byford.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, 2nd, is confined to the home of his uncle on Washington avenue with rheumatism in his limb. Mr. Wilmer has about recovered from his broken limb and now the rheumatism has attacked the other. He has the sympathy of a host of friends.

Master William Sappington, of Baltimore, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Sappington, on Mill street.

Prof. Galen Vansant, of Hurlock High School, attended the meeting of the High School teachers in Baltimore last week, and visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Vansant, here on Sunday.

Major Morris K. Barroll, brother of Hope H. Barroll, of this town, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. Col. Barroll's headquarters are now on Staton Island, New York.

Col. W. Hopper Gibson, of Centreville, was in Chestertown on professional business on Monday.

Mr. Joel R. Clements has been suffering with a severe cold during the past week.

Cashiers W. Bradford Copper and Allan A. Harris attended the banquet of the Maryland Chapter of the American Institute of Banking in Baltimore on Saturday night. Mr. Shuster, former financial minister of the United States in Persia, was among the principal speakers.

Mrs. J. M. J. Byron has been on the sick list during the week.

Our Merchants.

It is with pleasure that we write this morning of one of our oldest and now retired merchants, Mr. James S. Bradley. For thirty-five years Mr. Bradley was engaged in the grocery and provision business on High street, and by almost constant attention to business and the strictest integrity in his dealings with his fellowmen, he has earned a just reward, and retires from active business with the utmost confidence of the purchasing public and with the esteem of hosts of friends. Besides owning the property wherein was located his store, Mr. Bradley owns the Voshell House, is a director in the People's Bank and has other large business interests. Several weeks ago he sold his store business to Mr. James T. DeCorse, one of our young and aggressive farmers, and Mr. Bradley now becomes one of our most highly esteemed retired business men. He has been a patron of the TRANSCRIPT for some years, and we wish him the pleasure and comfort which undoubtedly are the accompaniment of an active and honorable business career of many years.

M. E. Sunday School Missionary Anniversary.

The M. E. Sunday School, of Chestertown, last Sunday evening held the greatest Missionary Anniversary in its history. Indeed it was a Red Letter Day in the church. The auditorium was tastefully and beautifully decorated with the flags of all nations, the Star Spangled Banner predominating. In the morning Dr. Barrett preached the Missionary sermon, which enthused and inspired the large audience. At 7.30 P. M. the church was packed with a large and intelligent congregation. The singing under the skillful training of Miss Fannie Stuart was first-class in every particular. The school under the care of Mrs. Rote, Mrs. Pippin and Mrs. Russell acquitted themselves in a handsome manner. The collection for missions was the largest ever given by the school, amounting to about $475. The amount contributed by classes is as follows:

Mrs. F. H. Russell	$15.25
Mrs. L. E. Barrett	41.07
Mrs. H. H. Kinefelter	50.63
Mrs. John C. Davis	28.86
Mrs. Ringgold	5.75
Mrs. Clara Perkins	13.65
Miss Bessie Stuart	51.84
Miss Mabel Toulson	26.68
Miss Lillian Matthews	7.41
Miss Maud Kemp	24.69
Miss Lizzie Davis	16.24
Miss Rose Vickers	32.31
Dr. Twilley	10.77
Primary Class	44.57
Pastor's Bible Class	31.80
Mr. Kemp Bordley	25.53
Mr. T. S. Bordley	29.42
Plate collection	15.36

The Missionary Banner for the year was awarded to Miss Bessie Stuart's class of young men.

The presentation speech was made by Frof. Howell, of Washington College. His remarks were pertinent, instructive and inspiring. The whole affair reflected great credit upon the Missionary Committee who had charge of the arrangements and program. Mr. Ed. Newsome, chairman of the Missionary Committee, presided. Miss Lillian Matthews presided at the piano and Miss Daisy Barnes at the organ.

Mr. Linwood Carter, who has sold his mill property in Church Hill, will move his family to Centreville in the near future. Mr. Carter will take charge of the Centreville Roller Mill. Messrs. James Hart and C. V. Bowen will manage the local mill. Mr. Harrison Newnam will fill the position in the office of E. S. Valliant & Son, Church Hill, left vacant by Mr. Bowen's resignation.

The fellow who predicted that there would be 27 snows during the winter, ought to be driven out of the country. Talk about winter, will it last until July?

Legislative Doings.

Mr. Beck's wild fowl bill, his bill to bond Kent county for $48,000 to build school houses, and his bill to bond Kent county for $20,000 to remodel the court house, have been reported favorably in the Senate.

Delegate Charles L. Miller, who has been detained at his home on account of illness, is rapidly improving and hopes to be able to resume his duties at Annapolis next week

Only three weeks more of the legislative session remain, and so far as we remember, not a single bill for Kent county has yet passed both houses. The road bill is sleeping, ha! ha! and others are taking a nap, and if somebody is not careful the clock will strike the hour before anything is done. Bully boy, Jim, you are playing the game like a veteran, and when Charlie gets there, he will be on the job, too. Don't let the play to the galleries ruffle you, we'll attend to that bye and bye.

Delegate Walker's bill providing for the surrender of the Chester river bridge to the State Road Commission has passed the House.

Senator Goslin's bill providing for continuing State Roads through incorporated towns has been favorably reported in the House.

CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian Churches Sunday by Rev. Frank H. Huffman as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.30 P. M., Sunday school every Sunday morning at Worton at 10.30 A. M.

Mr. Frank V. Rhodes, of the Baltimore bar, will make an address in Emmanuel Church next Friday, March 15, at 7.45 P. M.

Mr. Thomas D. Bowers led the Christian Workers Service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. Mr. Pardew, president of the Washington College Young Men's Christian Association, gave a splendid address, and other pleasing features were a duett by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson and a solo by Miss Ida Smith.

Revs. Drs. Polemus H. Swift and J. Fred Heisse, of the Baltimore Conference, are mentioned as possibilities for the office of bishop at the General Conference of the M. E. Church to be held in Minneapolis early in May.

Interesting and profitable revival services have been in progress in Christ M. P. Church during the week.

At a members meeting in Wesley Chapel M. P. Church recently, Mr. Samuel Burgess was elected delegate and Mr. Marion T. Miller, alternate, to represent the church at the annual conference which meets in Laurel, Del., the second week in April. The church is a unit, we understand, for the return of the popular pastor, Rev. A. B. Dupuy.

Chestestown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, close the Conference year—at 10.30 A. M., the pastor will preach—Subject: "What Christ Taught," 2.15 P. M. Sabbath school and Pastor's Bible Class, 7 P. M., Epworth League, song service, followed by short sermon by the pastor. All the members, friends and the public generally invited to be present at these closing services.

Because of the meeting of the Farmers' Institute on Monday, the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Kennedyville Charge, M. P. Church, will meet Saturday morning of the present week, the 9th inst. At the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cleaver, the conference will hold its session in their home. A full attendance of all the Official members is earnestly solicited. Remember the time and place. A members' meeting, under the direction of the Board of Stewards, will be held next Sunday morning, just after the sermon in the M. P. Church, for the election of delegate and alternate, for the approaching Annual Conference, to be held in Laurel, Del.

Kennedyville M. P. Church next Sunday, the 10th inst., Sunday school at 9.30 A. M.; Superintendent, John Medders. Sermon at 10.30, topic, "A Workman That Needeth Not to Be Ashamed". Junior C. E. Service, 2.30, and Song Service, with 20 minute sermon, beginning at 7 o'clock. Church delightfully comfortable. A cordial welcome to all.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.; Sunday school at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at six o'clock; Christian Workers Service at 6.45 P. M. Evening preaching service followed by revival service. All cordially welcome.

The Wilmington Conference meets next week in St. Paul's Church, Wilmington. Dr. Barrett will preach the missionary sermon at the opening of conference, and we hope he will be returned here for another year to continue his excellent ministry. The following are the homes of Kent county ministers and lay delegates:

Barrett, L. E.—Mrs. L. A. Truax, 1102 W. Eighth street.
Beauchamp, J. H.—Rev. F. H. Beauchamp, 314 S. Jackson.

THE KEY OF KNOWLEDGE.

Things You Ought to Know—Especially Why God Has Permitted Evil.

Every Christian Bible Student SHOULD KNOW the satisfactory proofs that the Bible is a Divine Revelation—reasonable and trustworthy—revealing a Plan which is systematic, full of Justice, Wisdom and Love.

The Key of Knowledge of the Scriptures, long lost (Luke 11:52), is found, and gives God's faithful people access to the "Hidden Mystery". (Col. 1:26.)

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Lord Jesus and his faithful are to be not only Priests but Kings.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that this Kingdom is to come and God's will be done at the Second Advent.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that God's Plan is to select and save the Church in the Gospel Age, and to use this Church in blessing the world during the Mediatorial reign on earth.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that a "Ransom for all" implies an opportunity for Restitution to all.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Day of Judgment is 1,000 years long—the world's Trial Day.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Spiritual and Human natures are separate and distinct.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the "Narrow Way" of self-sacrifice will cease with this age.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the "Highway of Righteousness" without suffering will be open to all of the redeemed race during the Messianic reign on earth.

YOU SHOULD KNOW that the Kingdoms of This World are but for an ordained period and must then give place to the "Kingdom of Heaven"—"Thy Kingdom Come." Especially YOU OUGHT TO KNOW why God has permitted evil for six thousand years, and the relationship of God's people to this reign of sin and death and to the results.

These subjects and many others of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension in "THE DIVINE PLAN OF THE AGES."

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna."

This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

Printed on bond writing paper, blue cloth, handsome. Price, 35 cents postpaid; imitation alligator skin, gold edges, $1.00 postpaid. Order now. Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Difficult Scriptures on Hell.

A little Book selling at only ten cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, THE STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable, far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Tabernacle Shadows of the Better Sacrifices."

This little Book is not for the ordinary reader, but most decidedly it is what every advanced Bible Student and earnest Christian should possess and study thoroughly. It costs but Ten Cents, is illustrated and draws its lessons on the higher life from the types and shadows of Israel's typical Atonement Day and other sacrifices. Surely every earnest Christian should have this little book and find in it a mine of spiritual wealth, health and refreshment. Order it now from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.
