Rock Hall Items.

Much interest is being displayed in this town on account of the new High School building, and few are trying to guess where it will be built. Sometime ago there was an offer made to the School Board of a good location on what is now called Sharp street. This would have been an ideal place with ample room for a playground.

Mrs. Mary Ashley was in Baltimore this week purchasing a new line of millinery and looking over the spring styles.

Several of the High School teachers were in attendance at the State Teachers Association held in Baltimore last Friday and Saturdav.

The wharf of the Maryland and Delaware R. R. Co., at this point is in a very bad condition, so much so that the teams are requested not to drive out on it, those doing so are warned that it is at their own risk. The work of rebuilding will be delayed until April on account of the weather.

Mrs. Blaustein was among the Baltimore visitors this week.

Mrs. Robert Crew was in Baltimore from Friday until Tuesday.

Coal was so scarce in Rock Hall that Capt. Chas. Davis made the record trip of the season as soon after the freeze as possible to relieve what bade fare to be a coal famine. He was only able to get nut coal but this was far better than snow balls.

Mr. S. B. Maslin, the piano expert, has a fine Kimball piano at his shop, which was burned quite badly in the Chestertown fire. Mr. Maslin intends to remove all the veneer and carve the wood with conventional designs then stain it with a beautiful mission stain. Old boy, you have a job.

Mr. Charlie Brown and his bride were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayres, of Rock Hall, this week. Mr. Brown will reside in Baltimore.

An Old Dutch Supper was to have been served in the K. of P. Hall last Wednesday night, by the Mite Society, but on account of bad weather it was postponed.

Most of the boats belonging to Rock Hall which were caught in the freeze away from home returned and are loading again with oysters for the market.

Capt. Geo. F. Satterfield, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Bessie Buckler, of Baltimore, visited friends and relatives in Rock Hall last week.

The young ladies of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, will hold an oyster supper on Saturday next.

Mrs. Mary Sewell, of the Chesapeake House, made a short trip to Baltimore, this week.

Mr. W. W. Clayton was a visitor to Chestertown last Tuesday.

The Order of Red Men will hold their annual anniversay on the 14th.

The large canoe which Capt. Bubsey Stevens is building was hauled down to Rock Hall creek last Wednesday.

The P. O. S. of A. will hold an entertainment in the new hall within a few days which is expected to be a real treat to all who attend.

Worton Items.

Mr. Everett Sheats has removed to the house recently occupied by Mr. John Prettyman.

Mr. Samuel Wallis, Jr., has purchased the store goods and fixtures from Mrs. A. M. Startt, and has opened a first-class grocery store.

Mr. G. Long, of Delaware, has been in and around this vicinity buying pigs, but finds them scarce.

Mr. Noble Gears has been housed for a week with boils.

Mrs. N. Clark is visiting her son, J. Fletcher Clark.

M. M. Carr has contracted with the farmers around here for their tomatoes at $10 per ton.

Messrs. George Cooper and Walter Moffett made a business trip to Baltimore this week.

The suppers given by the ladies of our two churches were surely fine and a success financially.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church are rehearsing for an entertainment to be held at the church Friday evening, March 15th.

Betterton Notes.

Mr. John F. Green entertained the Progressive Club at his home Feb. 29, it being his 72nd birthday. All the members of the club were present. After discussing many plans for the benefit of the town, they were all invited out in the dining room where the table was richly spread with chicken in every style, oysters in all styles, roast turkey and salads of all kinds. The members all did justice to everything on the table. Then about twelve o'clock they bade Mr. Green good-night and all felt sorry his birthday did not come more often.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. John Brice. Eleven members were present. Mrs. Harvey Moore handed in a check for twenty-five dollars, donated by Messrs. Whacker, Davis & Son. We certainly appreciate this favor. Our new church fund is growing.

Mr. John Brice spent Tuesday in Philadelphia.

Capt. George Moore and wife visited Baltimore the past week.

Winter keeps up and the coal situation is certainly becoming very serious.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather the country schools near town are having a good attendance.

Two houses near town belonging to Mr. W. H. Burris are idle, the tenants having found more desirable residences.

Mrs. Lofland, mother of Mr. Robert Lofland, who lives with Mr. G. Everett, lately fell and injured her hip to such an extent as to make her helpless.

Miss Annie Talbot, who is spending the winter at Palm Beach, Fla., writes that she is having a pleasant time and enjoying salubrious weather.

Still Pond Notes.

Miss Edith Caldwell, of Galena, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Mabel Norris.

Mr. Clarence Ford spent the past week with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Will Dempsey, of Galena, spent Sunday in our town.

Miss Mary Caps spent the past week with Mrs. Cornelius Jarvis, Black's.

Mrs. Samuel Busick, of Baltimore, is spending some time with Mrs. Ella Pennington.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders Wednesday afternoon. A good crowd was present, and all enjoyed themselves.

Ducking is an enjoyable pasttime in our town. Quite a number of fellows have been going regular. Mr. Charles Jewell and Mr. Elwin Ford killed two fine geese one night last week. Keep it up.

Mrs. George Atwell has returned from a visit to Townsend and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiable have returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

We were glad to see Mr. George W. Covington well enough to come down to the drug store. He certainly was missed and we will be glad to have him back in his place.

Mr. Mike Quinn is working again with Mr. A. J. Hackett, blacksmith. Welcome back, Mr. Quinn.
