THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. J. L. BYRON.

[Communicated.]

After long months of keenest suffering endured with a sweet Christian fortitude, Mrs. Anna E. Byron, wife of Mr. John L. Byron, died at her home on North Broad street at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon aged but 44 years. Mrs. Byron had been a devoted member for many years of the Methodist Church in Middletown. She was a home loving affectionate wife and mother highly esteemed by all who knew her, and her early death amid so much pain, awoke sentiments of the deepest sympathy in the breasts of all. Mrs. Byron leaves besides her husband, three children Mrs. John Mcguire, Miss Elsie Byron, of Middletown, and Mr. Charles Byron, of Wilmington, her father, Mr. Craynor, and a brother, of Chestertown. Her funeral services took place on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were under the conduct of Rev. Vaughan S. Collins. The floral offerings bestowed in loving tribute to her memory, were many and beautiful. Washington Camp, No. 9 P. O. S. of A. presented a large wreath of white and pink roses, carnations and sweet peas, and Middletown Council No. 2 Jr. O. U. A. M. gave a handsome flower design, while the Gas Study Club, of Wilmington, sent a lovely bouquet of Easter lillies, and others from her own family and friends were given. The bearers were Messrs. R. B. Jones, B. F. Gallagher, Wallace Eliason, John Buehm, D. W. Stevens and Minors Banning. Interment was in Forest Cemetery.

CHARLES ENGLAND.

At the hour of going to press, we learn of the death of Mr. Charles England, one of the best-known men in the upper section of the county, and a life long Republican of prominence. Mr. England died on Thursday from the effects of pneumonia. The deceased was a fine old gentleman, and enjoyed the respect and esteem of a host of friends throughout this and Cecil counties. He was a relative of Mrs. Frank E. Duyer, of Chestertown, whom he frequently visited. Funeral services will be held in Chesterville M. E. Church South to-morrow (Sunday) morning at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Rood. Interment will be made in Chesterville cemetery. Undertaker J. L. Smith in charge of funeral arrangements.

MRS. HELEN COMEGYS.

Mrs. Helen Comegys widow of the late Spencer Comegys, died at the home of her son near Black's Station on Tuesday night last after a short illness of appoplexy aged 77 years. She leaves two sons, Messrs. John and Spencer Comegys, both prominent farmers of this county. Funeral was held at Shrewsbury P. E. Church, yesterday afternoon at half past two o'clock. Rev. Mr. Robinson officiating. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining. Undertaker W. H. Krusen had charge of the arrangements.

MR. J. E. SMITH.

Mr. J. E. Smith, a well-known sailor, died at his home, near Chestertown, on February 23rd, aged 59 years. Funeral services were held on Feb. 26th, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment was in Union cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. J. Perry Price, Walter Hogan, John Newsome, A. S. Crouch, Medford Jones and Charles L. Dodd. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. JOHN A. JOLLS.

Mr. John A. Jolls, who had been critically ill for a number of months, died at his home on Cross street, Middletown, on Thursday night of last week. He was a prominent mason, and was well-known throughout this peninsula. He was a brother of Mr. Charles Jolls, formerly mail clerk on the local railroad.

Grange Notes.

The Chestertown Grange held a very interesting meeting on Wednesday afternoon. Nothwithstanding the very inclement weather a goodly number of the members were present. Preparations were begun for holding a supper and festival in a convenient place in the town during court week in April. The ladies of the grange, headed by Mrs. William Vansant, Mrs. Frank M Miller and Mrs. Harry B. Nicholson, served a splendid luncheon consisting of chicken, country ham, chicken and potato salads, Maryland biscuit, pocket book rolls, pickles, cheese, coffee, etc., after the business meeting. Several visitors enjoyed the luncheon with the members. Four applications for membership were received.

The Still Pond Grange had their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Although the roads were very bad the night of the entertainment yet the returns were very satisfactory. We are now in possesion of a fine new set of dishes—glasses and silver for our table. All grangers are urged to come out next Tuesday for a special meeting followed by supper and initiation, when we can make you acquainted with our new wares. Our lecturer, Mrs Moore, was ready with a fine program and announced one for next week which will beat it. Our ladies are much interested in the new course of Domestic Science to be given at M. A. C. this month and several have decided to go.

Kennedyville Items.

March is here, but no spring weather yet, the farmers are not able to do much work out of doors so far this month.

The Grange is looking forward to a very interesting meeting for this Saturday afternoon and expect a large attedance. These meetings have been very interesting and social through the winter for both old and young. We expect to have several speakers present. Mrs. Acca Crew and Mr. Wm. G. Smith, of Fairlee Grange, they also are State officers, have promised to be with us. These officers need no introduction and the fact of them coming should bring a large crowd as they are both gifted speakers. We are also arranging to initiate a class in the near future as there have been eight or ten names presented and balloted on.

Mrs. Crosely is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs Urie.

Miss Blanche Sutton has returned home having spent several weeks with relatives near Clayton and Kenton, Del.

Mrs. Maggie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hagne attended the wedding of Mrs. Johnson's brother, Mr. John Sylvester and Miss Mary Downs, of Kenton, Del., the past week.

Our fishermen are anxiously awaiting for spring weather.

Mr. Louis Walls is trapping quite a number of muskrats and he finds ready sale for them in the community.

Our gunners are getting a little hungry for a swan or a goose as this game has not been very plentiful while the weather was so very cold.

Mr. and Mrs John Medders spent Saturday with their son, Jesse, in Chestertown.
