Dr Sir

Mr Dan. Cavell of Doddington has just put into my hands a letter from Mrs Digges requesting that I would pay to her 1/6 of the sales of property belonging to my grandfathers estate: that she as executrix of Mr Digges is the proper person to whom the money ought to be paid, and as such would be eventually liable in case she should not be entitled to the 1/6 part of the sales aforesaid. - I wish you would speedily inform me whether you have any objection to the money being paid to Mrs Digges, and if you have, I have to request you to urge your lawyer to decide upon the question you have submitted to his opinion. Mrs Digges writes, that she is in want of the money and fears much anxiety
