CHURCH WORK.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian Churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M.; Grace at 3 P. M.; Worton at 7.30 P. M. Sunday school every Sunday morning at Worton at 10.30 A. M.

Miss Fannie Baker led the Christian Workers service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening, a feature of which was a solo by Miss Edith Fallowfield.

Rt. Rev. John G. Murray, Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland, preached an excellent sermon in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Friday evening. The congregation was delighted with the discourse.

Mrs. J. Lane Finley was in Pocomoke City over Sunday on business in connection with the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Easton, of which she is president.

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Barrett, at conference there will be no preaching service in the M. E. Church to-morrow. All the other services of the day as usual.

Kennedyville Methodist Protestant Church services for Sunday, March 17th, 1912—Sunday school, 9.30 A. M., Sermon at 10.30 A. M., Junior C. E. service at 2.30 P. M., and song service, followed by brief sermon, from some prominent Scripture character at 7.00 o'clock. A cordial welcome to all.

The Wilmington M. E. Conference was formally opened on Wednesday morning by the presiding Bishop, Dr. Luther B. Wilson. Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett, of Chestertown, preached a fine missionary sermon on Tuesday evening. Great interest has centered in the election of ministerial and lay delegates, who it was thought would be elected yesterday to the Genera Conference in Minneapolis. The four district superintendents will be the ministerial delegates while the most proboble state for lay delegates is Joseph W. Coley, of the Wilmington district, Willard Saulsbury, of the Dover district, Hon. Thomas A. Smith, of the Easton district and Hon. John G. Townsend, of the Salisbury district, Mrs. Wm. M. Field, of the Wilmington district, is making a strong contest for lay delegate, and she has many backers. If she is elected, it will be the first instance in which a lady has been sent as a delegate to the General Conference. The ordination sermon will be preached to-morrow morning by Bishop Wilson, and the appointments will be announced on Monday evening or Tuesday. There are few changes in contemplation.

On Friday next, 22d inst., Charles E. Benry, Esq., of the Philadelphia bar, will make an address in Emmanuel Church at 7.45 P. M.

Miss Avis Sheppard has been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore during the week.

Mrs. Carrie Wroth underwent a successful operation in the Mercy Hospital this week. We are glad to state that she is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sparks returned from Jacksonville, Florida, this week where they spent a part of the winter with their son. Both are well and enjoyed their southern sojourn very much.

Miss Louise Forbes, of Dover, Del., has accepted a position as saleslady with H. F. Jefferson & Bro. She comes very highly recommended. The superintendent of the millinery department, Miss Kate Wheatley, is in New York and Philadelphia, inspecting and purchasing spring and summer millinery.

Our Advertisers.

Now is the time to begin to think about your painting. Mr. Thomas B. Newcomb, of Lynch, is one of the best painters in the county, and he will be glad to confer with you. He has piles of work all over the county, but he will attend to your order and give you excellent service.

Excellent garden seed of all descriptions at the Stam Drug Company's or M. A. Toulson's store, each of which calls special attention to their assortment this morning.

When the United States government will give such a recommendation as it has to the Buick car on page 5, you may know it has merit. This automobile is sold by Graham & Clements, and we invite you to read their adv. and see what the U. S. government says about the character of this car.

The Educator Shoe is just the thing to enable the children's feet to grow properly. They are sold by C. C. Jones, the shoe man. He also sells the kind of hosiery that lasts.

Abe Cohen, the Sandy Bottom merchant, is on the job with a store full of grocery bargains for the coming week. He will pay 35 cents per dozen for eggs next week, and wants all he can get. Look up his advertisement and be wise.

Vansant & Newsome are displaying smart spring and summer styles in all their departments and they invite your inspection. They are making a drive on Ralston shoes and pretty hosiery for summer. See if you can beat them in price, style or comfort.

Corsets and shoes are special features of Jefferson & Bro's adv. this week. Read it on page 8 and see what it says.

We call your special attention this morning to Kilbourn & Bramble's adv. on page 2. The big store at Fairlee is stocked full of choice spring and summer goods, and if they have forgotten to tell you everything in their adv. on page 2, call them up over the phone and you will get your information. Their prices especially for Wednesday are worthy of your careful consideration. Take them your eggs, they offer highest prices.

A. L. Sparks has received this week a large consignment of spring and summer goods, and he will tell you all about them in the TRANSCRIPT next week.

John Bartley is ready for the spring and summer trade. If you want your house papered, painted or furnished in the most approved manner, Bartley can do it to the Queen's taste. See him about it.

IMPORTANT—Bordley & Sons have just received a phone message from the Imperial Tailoring Company stating that they have shipped their full line of piece goods ranging in price from $13.00 to $25.00 for a tailored made-to-measure suit, guaranteed to be pure wool and every garment made with silk. For full advertisement of particulars, etc., see next week.
