Grange Notes.

The next Pomona Grange of Kent county will be held at Fairlee, Thursday, April 11th. Mr. HarryGriffith, of Sassafras Grange, is Worthy Master, and Mr. Edgar Pennington, of Kennedyville Grange, is Worthy Secretary.

The Chestertown Grange at its meeting appointed a committee to confer with our representatives in the Legislature relating to the passage of a bill requiring commission merchants to return to the farmers the empty coops, crates, etc., in which their produce is shipped. The shippers complain very bitterly against the commission men, who refuse, it is alleged, to return the farmers empties unless the farmers pay for them after having bought them in first instance. Thus it is claimed, results in great loss to farmers, and it was sought to remedy the defect by law. A letter was written to Mr. Beck asking him to draft a bill for the farmers relief. Mr. Beck replied that he received the letter on the day set by custom forbidding the introduction of any more bills in the Senate. He stated that he would be very glad to take the matter up at the next session and give the farmers the relief desired.

Messrs. Raymond Jones and Howard Leaverton, both of whom are members of Fairlee Grange, are tenanting Mr. D. B. Stewart's "White Hall" farm near Chestertown. Both are energetic, intelligent and progressive young men and are sure to make their influence felt in the agricultural affairs of the county. Mr. Leaverton took a special course at the Maryland Agricultural College during the winter.

Betterton Notes.

Fishing and setting pound nets seems to be the principal industry here now.

Andrew Miller is building the new wharf for Davis & Co. Mr. Davis expects to be ready to can herring by the fifteenth of April.

Our stores have a large assortment of spring goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Massey and children, of Queen Annes, are visiting Mrs. Harry Moore.

Miss Mary K. Gooding visited her people the past week. Miss Gooding is from Washington.

Sargent Gooding spent a few days with relatives here the past week.

Mrs. W. A. Crew is in Baltimore doing her Easter shopping.

Mrs. Bayard Crew and sister, Louise, are spending a few days in Baltimore.

Only for the timely assistance of Mr. Joseph Duyer, Betterton would have had a very dangerous fire. Mrs. Loton Rasin was burning some rubbish in the back yard when the fire caught in some way to some tarred net and spread to some dry grass and was beyond the control of the lady when Mr. Duyer came home to dinner. The heart of Betterton might have been in ashes. We appreciate the gentleman's heroic work, and thank him very much.

Mr. Jones, formerly of Lynch, has moved in the Leigh house.

Some of our ladies have chickens large enough to fry. They were hatched by the mother hen. These chickens weigh nearly two pounds each. Who can beat this?

Millington Items.

Miss Annie Gorton, who has been sick for some time, went to a Baltimore hospital for treatment, last Wednesday.

A little girl of Mr. Harvey Jackson's who lived near Banco, died last Friday from injuries received from having a pitchfork accidentally run into her head.

Julian Jeter is still ill with pneumonia. He is to be sent to a hospital for treatment.

The owner of the oil wagon, who lives at Massey, had his leg broken last Saturday, by the horses running away.

A dance was held at No. 10, last Tuesday evening, for the benefit of some parties. Good order prevailed, and those present had a fine time. Millington was well represented.

Miss Carpenter, who takes Miss Bessie Wright's place as operator, is an expert at her business. She boards with Mrs. Merchant.

The young ladies of the P. E. Church are rehearsing for a drama to be held in Gillespie's Hall, during Easter week.

Mrs. Orem is at her home in Crumpton, after having made a visit to her brother, Mr. Thomas Godwin.

The Misses Cole are to have possession of their lately purchased home some time next week.

Mrs. Wm. Tolson's condition is no better.

Fiftieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hebron, of Lynch, quietly celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on the 25th of March. They were the recipients of many congratulations, among the most prized being a letter from Mrs. Mattie Kelley Gale, a bridesmaid at the ceremony and the only living survivor of the event, except the contracting parties. They were the first couple married in Still Pond Church.

Singularly to state, Mr. and Mrs. Hepbron have never lost any of their descendants. They have four children, namely—Elizabeth Lee, Frank Roseberry, Mrs. Elsworth C. Bowers and Harry Hampton Hepbron. Before marriage Mrs. Hepbron was Miss Alphonzo Roseberry, daughter of the late James A. Roseberry.

The following lines, sent by a relative on the 50th anniversary, ably express the sentiment of the many admirers of this beloved couple.

Fifty years ago, dear friend,
In youth's fair golden weather
Hand in hand you started out
To walk life's path together,

Now fifty years still find you
That pathway bravely treading,
And with congratulations
We hail your Golden Wedding.
