Annapolis 18th Decr 1797.

Dear Sir

Mr Threadgill has just put into my hands your letter of the 14th instant. I have completed my payment into the bank of Baltimore, and therefore can without any great inconvenience grant the wished for indulgence, which I do most chearfully as it is likely to be beneficial to you. I beg to be kindly remembered to your family and remain with regard & esteem

D. Sir

Yr. most hum. Servt.
