Mrs Lee's Letter
of April 16th 1798.

My Dr Mr Lee Monday Morning

1348

I have set down to write in hopes of meeting with a opportunity of sending my Letter, and the inclosed one from Mr Carroll, I flater my self that I shall see you this week. as Mr Waring says he expects you will be perpar by the 02 as it was the time you appointed your self, but seamed very uneasy, and said his notes would lay over if you did not. I think that was what he said. Mr Carroll writes very pressing. I dont know what you will doe, but I would sell somthing if possible, I hope you are quite recovered, and that Len has got up safe, I wanted much to send you up some herrings but they were not to had at that time, I had the to Bakco sold at 7 Dollars. 26. was paid to the Colleag, & the rest to the Bank I am affraid you sent me all the Butter, and keep not any for you self, I beg you'll not send any more with you & Billy Stay up their till she makes plenty. we make a little Butter. but what kate makes is good, and so would molls too if I was up their, perhaps Mrs Melton see's after it. I beg she may not have anything to do with it nor nothing else that she may not not have any excuse to Carge anything
