My Dear Mr. Lee

Tuesday Morning July 28..

1350

Mr. Monroe has jest called to let me know that he is going to Fredirick to Morrow. I have taken this opportunity to inclose you Mr McClure's letter. I have not seen any thing of Billy, nor heard from him. I am Sorry for it, as I dont know what to doe about your Beusiness. I hope you got up safe, and are quite well, the Day you left me was one of the hotest, and I may add one of the Dulest, I ever spent but I begin to be used to it. Mr Harward called here, and wished me to inclosed you tow slipes of paper, and said he should come again in 10 Days. one of the Clarks has been hear to Rent the Wooding House, I promised him to write to you about it, he wan it Cheap & you to repare it. I intend to offer it to him for one hundred & fifty Dollars, if he will make the repares. you had better not expose your self this very warme weather John is well he spend Sun day with me. General Dinkne is in Town. every thing is much as when you left us. I must bid you Adieu and write to the girls by this opportunity

I am my Dear Mr. Lee yrs affectly
