Mowbray M. E. Church, Cliffs, Rev. W. M. McCann, pastor. Sunday school 2 P. M.; Epworth League 7 P. M.; preaching 7.30 P. M. Sunday is Missionary Day at both churches.

Mrs. W. T. Edwards has been indisposed for several days.

Ploughing is now in order among the farmers.

George Harris, of Quaker Neck, is suffering with an attack of nervous paralysis. It came very suddenly last Wednesday while he was fishing.

The young men's Bible class of Bond M. E. Church was organized on Sunday. There was a large attendance. Miss Jennie Wilkins and Mrs. John Jacquett are the teachers.

Mr. Wm. C. Townsend and Mr. Carrol Stafford were among the Baltimore visitors last week.

The trustees of Bond M. E. Church are going to have extensive improvements made to the church this spring. This will then be the most attractive church in the Wilmington Conference outside of the large city churches.

Mr. J. F. Wink and sister, Miss Jennie, have returned from Hancock where their mother was buried on Thursday last.

Washington Loses Game.

Washington College lost out to the strong team of Dean Academy, of Massachusetts, on Monday afternoon by the score of 11 to 2. Dietz, Washington's new pitcher, hurled good ball, and had his team given him better support, the score would have been much closer. The fielding of the locals was slightly off color, but Washington has a strong team this year, and when the weather warms up they will play as classy ball as you care to see. A feature of the game was a home run drive by Long of the local team. The boys from Dean Academy are a heavy lot of ball players, and they are undoubtedly well fortified in the pitcher's box.

All members of the Daughters of America are invited to attend an "Easter Social" at Fraternal Hall, Monday April 8, 1912, at 7.30 o'clock.

Kemp Bordley and Warren Hurlock, violin, Arthur Bacon, coronet, and Foster Cannan, trombone, assisted splendidly in the singing.

On Monday evening, April 1st, the Epworth League of Chestertown M. E Church, tendered a reception to the pastor and wife. A large crowd, composed of members of the church and of all denominations and citizens of the town generally, were present. An orchestra, in charge of Mr. Kemp Bordley, rendered delightful music. Mr. C. H. Jefferson, Delegate elect to the General Conference, made the welcame speech, expressing the gladness of church and people that the pastor had been returned for the fourth year. The remarks of Mr. Jefferson were timely and highly appreciative of the labors of the pastor and his wife. The pastor followed in a pleasing and happy vein, returning thanks for the love and affection of the people and promising to give them the best service he can render. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance and the large audience was bountifully supplied. The whole affair reflected great credit upon the skill and taste of Mrs. Merrick Clements, who had the function in charge, assisted by a splendid corps of ladies. Mr. and Mrs. James Brice, who have just returned from their winter sojourn in Florida, stood with the pastor and wife in the receiving line.

Olivet M. E. Sunday school, Galena, held an election on Sunday afternoon last. The following officers were elected. Superintendant, Mr. L. R. Vansant, Ass't. Sup't. Mr. Wm. Steele, Secretary, Mr. H. Rood, who had been pastor of the charge for the past four years, was sent to Trappe, Talbot county. Dr. Rood was very popular with his congregations and the people generally in the upper section of the county, and he will be greatly missed. He will be succeeded by Rev. A. E. Owens.

Organization of Business Men's Association Assured.

There is no doubt that the organization of the Business Men's Association of Kent county will be affected with splendid results. Mr. W. P. Larock, representing the Merrick Security and Trust Co., who are financing the movement, reports that the sentiment in Chestertown is very strong among the leading business men, in favor of the movement. He has already the support of a number of our best merchants, and there is no reason why the business men of the entire county should not give their support to a movement of this kind, the object of which is to wipe out the evils of the present credit system and to bring about by fair and legitimate means, conditions that will lead to an increase of business, a decrease in losses and the making of laws for the protection of merchants and other business and professional men. Mr. Merchant, fall in line.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MRS. ANNIE M. TWILLEY.

Mrs. Annie M. Twilley, widow of the late Dr. J. T. Twilley, died at her home on High street, on Sunday night, aged 76 years. The deceased had been confined to her bed for several weeks, and patiently and persistently fought against the inevitable. Mrs. Twilley was one of the best known ladies in Chestertown. She was a woman devoted to the interests of her home, her family and her church. To each she gave the most loyal devotion, and her every thought was for the comfort and happiness of those she loved so well. Of a sympathetic nature, kind hearted and liberal minded, she was always a factor for good in this community, and her kindly christian spirit and charitable disposition made themselves felt in many a life burdened with care and anxiety. The deceased's health had been failing ever since the death of her esteemed husband, to whose interests and home comforts she was devoted with a loyalty that was beautiful in its simplicity and unostentatiousness. She will be missed in this community, as every good woman who does good deeds is. She is survived by three sons—Dr. Wm. S. Twilley, residing in Spain, George B Twilleyand Dr. Charles R. Twilley, of Chestertown; also two step-children Dr. J. Marion Twilley, of Dover, Del., and Mrs. Lenora Ball, of Princess Anne, she also leaves a sister, Mrs. Fannie Sparks. Funeral services were held from her late residence on High street at 2.30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Dr. J. Marion Twilley, Dr. Charles R. Twilley, Dr. C. W. Whaland, Messrs. Charles H. Jefferson, M. A. Toulson and Stanley Porter. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the funeral arrangements. An impressive feature of the service was the rendering of the hymn, "I shall see Him Face to Face," as a solo by Mrs. J. W. Lowe, of Baltimore.

MISS SALLIE SIMMONDS.

Miss Sallie Simmonds, for many years a popular and much loved resident of Quaker Neck, this county, died at the Home of Incurables, Baltimore, on Sunday last, aged 77 years. Her remains were brought to Chestertown by rail Tuesday and interred in the Trew family burying ground on the farm of Mr. Bartus Trew. The deceased was a relative of the Trew and Brown families in this county. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. C., Comegys, Henry and Wm. T. Brown, and Walter S. and Thos. W. Trew. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the arrangements.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Frank V. Simpers, Paul Massey, Wm. H. Mckee, Adam Startt, Thomas Dixon and Frank Baxter. The deceased leaves a widow and four children; also two brothers, Messrs. Ramie Zeizel, of near town, and Jacob Zeizel, of Phfladelphia. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ANNA ELIZABETH MILLER.

Anna Elizabeth Miller, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, died on Wednesday, aged 1 year and 9 months. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris. Interment was made in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were Masters Ralph Usilton, Chaplain Willis, Wilbur Klein and Harvey Staats. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Church, Galena, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in church yard adjoining. W. H. Krusen funeral director.

BECK—WOOLSEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodges Beck, of St. Louis, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mary Ricaud to Doctor Ross Arlington Woolsey, on Wednesday evening, April 17th, 1912, at 8 o'clock, in St. George's Chapel, St. Louis. The bride-elect is a granddaughter of Mrs. Wm. S. Walker, formerly of this town.

MR. G. B. WESTCOTT FAITHFUL.

Mr. G. B. Westcott Faithful, a prominent resident of Queen Annes county, died in Baltimore on Monday. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. W. W. Chapman, of this town.

Legislative Doings.

The closing day of the Legislature was marked by the passage of many important bills, among which were several local bills.

Mr. Miller's bill prohibiting the sale of poultry, etc., in Kent county between sunset and sunrise was passed by Mr. Beck after being amended, and is with the Governor.

The bill providing for bonding Chestertown for sewers and streets as amended in the House, was passed.

The bill pertaining to the Cecil-Kent Light Power and Heat and Electric Railway finally passed the House and goes to the Governor.

Mr. Harris' school bond bill was killed by Mr. Beck in the Senate.

Not more than eight bills affecting Kent county were passed during the entire session.

The bill increasing the salaries of judges was killed in the House, as was also the State-wide Local Option bill.

The enactment of other important legislation is recorded elsewhere in this issue.

The bill pensioning Mr. Jesse G. Duyer was passed. It is to be hoped Gov. Goldsborough will sign this bill as it is a worthy cause.
