Thomas Sim Lee Esqr.

Baltimore 4th June 1798

Sir

By the Schooner Guardian Captain Blackwell from Madeira, I received from my correspondents the Pipe of Bell Wine, which you was so obliging as to order through our mutual friend Mr. Wm B. Magruder to be shipped for you, and a few days ago, I forwarded it, in a general bill of Lading to my friend Mr. Laird, who will deliver it to you on its arrival, and as my entire confidence has long been fixed on the House that shipped it, I have no hesitation in saying, that you will be fully satisfied with its quality in durtions, - Annexed you have a State of the cost and Charges thereon, to this place, payable at 60 dys. from date of Entry —
