By Mr. Murdock who returns to Fred.k to Morrow Morning I have an opportunity of answering your favor of the 10th by Post - I am obliged to you for the information it contained - if it does not imposing upon Mr. Pott's kindness I inquiring his Opt. I would be agreeable to me to have the large Black Mare, the Roan & Peter Miller's or Crondorff's Mare put to his left - but they should not be yoked until the other Mares are done with the Horse & then not more than two at a time - lest our Ploughing business should suffer - You say nothing of your Pastures I hope they are much improved - the Potatoes I hope were planted on the 12th as was proposed - I think the Wheat Crop in the heart of the Country is suffering by the Scab & the rest is apprehended & fear there is equal reason to dread both the one & the other of those Calamities at Nidwood, not only from the weather but from the deep green Colour you say the Wheat has - The Inclosed Letter came to my hands in company with yours & being at the Moment impressed with an idea that you had
