MILLINERY

Easter week was a great week in millinery. We were all prepared, and hence could accommodate the trade. Many stylish novelties were entirely disposed of, but Miss Wheatley was in Philadelphia the first of this week, and really it looks like the season has just started---such is the splendid variety of the fill-ins. And, too, millinery was somewhat lower in price at wholesale houses, and of course you get your hat at a lower price on account of this large after-Easter purchase. Come and see for yourself.

Silk Pongee 39c per yd.

You know Pongee is good this season. We have all colors, and next week it will be sold at 39c per yard. These are 60c values, and you are fortunate to buy them at the above price.

HOSIERY.

We are ready with our splendid display of Spring Hosiery, the best selection that fashion and fancy can suggest. All Hosiey in prices with our usual moderation.

Our 25c and 3 for $1.00 lines are very strong.

You should see our line of Underware, Dress Goods and Linings, Embroideries, Linens, Draperies, Ginghams, Percales, Trunks, Suit Cases, Neckwear and Fancy Notions.

MARBURY FOR WILSON.

Mr. William L. Marbury, one of the leading Democrats in the State, and a staunch supporter of Blair Lee in the last Gubernational primaries is out for Gov. Wilson in a splendid interview in the Baltimore Sun. Mr. Marbury's announcement is very significent and will undoubtedly increase Gov. Wilson's following in the State. Mr. Marbury in condensed form says:

"In Woodrow Wilson the hour and the man have met."

"He would be the wisest choice which the Democratic National Convention could make."

"He embodies in himself to an extent that no other candidate possibly could the present dominant purpose of the American people to resume control of their own government."

"The destines of this country could not be placed in safer hands."

"He is for progress in a straight line."

"The kind of progress Colonel Roosevelt favors has always seemed to me like the progress which a dog makes when he catches his tail."

"We can trust Governor Wilson to do justice to the whole people and not to favor any one section or interest."

"He stands for a tariff for revenue as distinguished from a tariff for protection."

"With such a candidate victory would be assured."

DEMORALIZATION OF POLITICS.

"And our people will further agree with him in saying, 'the worst feature of protection is the demoralization of our political ideas. We have based government upon patronage and privilege instead of upon justice and equality. That is the cancer that eats at the hearts of all.'

"Not once within the memory of men now living has the Democratic party failed to carry this country when it has had the courage to come out boldly in its platform for this great principal of a tariff for revenue as distinguished from a tariff for protection.

"The truth is that Woodrow Wilson belongs to that splendid order of statesmen of which the South bred so many prior to the Civil War, and I cannot conceive of a more ideal candidate for the Democracy of Maryland.

"With such a candidate I believe that victory would be assured.

"My professional engagements are such as to render it extremely difficult, if not impossible, for me to take part in the present primary campaign, and I greatly appreciate the courtesy of the Sun in affording me this opportunity to present my views, for whatever they may be worth, to the Democrats of the State."

The Pomona Grange.

The Pomona Grange met at Fairlee Thursday, Mr. Harry Griffith, master, presiding. An able address of welcome was delivered by Worthy Master John P. Nicholson in his usual happy and appropriate strain. This address was responded to by Rev. S. S. Hepbron, of Still Pond Grange, in a very instructive and profitable strain of thought. The home choir rendered very delightful and soul stiring music. Mrs. George Hatcherson rendered a fine solo. Mr. Warren Hurlock, with his violin, gave considerable eclat. The grange was highly entertained by a recitation by Miss Frances Corey, which was beautifully and touchingly delivered. Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth gave an instructive address on her trip and experience upon her attendance at the course of domestic science at the Maryland Agricultural College.

The question of "Why our Soil does not Produce as it Should" was ably demonstated by Mr. J. T. Anthony in a short address which was full of sound and important instructions. A very laughable history of merchandise experience of Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, as told by Mr. Stockton Startt in his characteristic humorous manner, was one of the coming features of the meeting.

An address of unusual interest on "Sanitary Conditions" as demonstrated by the professors at the M. A. C. was delivered by Mrs. A. L. Harris.

A corn contest similiar to the one of last year was agreed upon for the coming summer.

Mothers' and Teachers' Club.

Chestertown, Md., April 2, 1912.

A meeting of mothers and teachers was held this Tuesday afternoon in the school room in the Custom House. Miss Ross, the representative of the "After School Club," explained the object of the meeting. It was decided to organize a club to be known as "The Chestertown Mothers' and Teachers' Club." Mrs. Lewin Wickes was elected president, Mrs. Physic, vice-president; Miss Jeannette Gooding, secretary. It was decided that the meetings should be held Thursdays, and it was suggested that the club meet every two weeks. This, however, was left open for further discussion. Those present were: Miss Ross, Mrs. Physic, Mrs. Breckwedel, Mrs. Sewell, Mrs. James Kirby, Mrs. William Parrott, Miss Susie Roberts, Miss Turis, Miss Anna Leaverton, Miss Miriam Leaverton, Miss Fannie E. Stuart, Miss Miriam Breckwedel. Each member present was asked to see as many mothers and teachers as possible and to urge them to attend the next meeting. All mothers and others who are interested in the children are very earnestly solicited to become members of this club. A second meeting was held last Thursday afternoon at the High School building, but owing to the small attendance it was decided to defer further meetings until next fall.

Church Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. F. X. Moore officiated, interment in Still Pond cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of my mother, Martha E. Rollison, who died 11 years ago to-day, April 10th.

The month of April once more is here,
To me the saddest of all the year,
Because it took from me away,
My dear mother 11 years ago to-day.

God called her home, it is his will,
But in my heart I love her still;
Her memory is as dear to-day,
As in the hour she passed away.

Dearest mother, how I miss you,
Since from earth you passed away,
And my heart is aching sorely,
As I think of you each day.
