[redacted]ve before me your favour of yesterday and above is a Copy of the Account tendered to you by Mr Wilson — In twelve Months I hope many matters will have altered very much for the better, which time I should think you will consider reasonable for the payment of your Bond — But at the elapse of that period should it unfortunately be otherwise, I hope we shall still have it in our power to grant you further indulgence — I shall be in Georgetown Monday next — I remain, very respectfully

Sir, Your Mo: ob Servt
