Saturday Sept. 27th

My dear Brother

I am sure if you had witnessed the pleasure your letter afforded us, you would have pronounced us all as fond of news as Mrs Jo Dakins; We have never heard a word from below since you left the neighbourhood, and except on Sundays have been entirely confined to the house, but Papa came up on Saturday and brought the horses, on Sunday we went to D. Ringgolds to dinner, and to day we go to Mr Carrols, to morrow to Mr Belton & so on, until we go the rounds, for we are all tired of staying at home. Mama was very much indisposed last week with a pain in her back, Dr. P. gave her some medicine which relieved her very much, her eye has got quite well, she desires a great deal of love to you and will write by the Monday
