Shrewsbury Church News.

The Easter services in this parish were excellent. The day began with an early celebration of the Holy Eucharist at St. Andrews' Chapel, Galena, at 8.30 A. M., followed by matins and a second celebration at the parish church at 11. Both chapel and church were gay with flowers and pot plants, and the music was of a high order. The attendance at both places was good.

On Monday morning the annual parish meeting was held, and Mr. H. Ford, of Galena, was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Parr. Messrs. Robert Morgan and W. C. Groves were elected delegate and alternates to the annual convention.

At 2 P. M. the children's service was held and the S. I. offerings received. Immediately afterward the Junior Auxiliary held their annual meeting and the Baby's Branch brought in their red boxes. Adjournment was then made to the church lawn where the Easter egg hunt filled the children with delight. Cake and lemonade was then served in the rectory and the tired but happy children left for their homes. The attendance was quite large, for nearly every child in the neighborhood considers it a privilege to attend the egg hunt at Shrewsbury.

On Tuesday afternoon the Woman's Auxiliary and Ladies' Aid held their regular meetings. There was a large attendance, and considerable business was transacted, after which refreshments were served.

Took Ill Wife to City on Sail Boat.

To save his wife, who was stricken ill with appendicitis, Capt. John K. Kernan, an oysterman, who lives near Rock Hall, rigged up his sailboat Sunday morning and, after placing supplies aboard, carried his spouse aboard the craft and placed her in the cabin. He then turned the prow of the little craft toward Baltimore and, with the aid of favorable winds, arrived in Baltimore Sunday night in time to get Mrs. Kernan to the University Hospital to be operated upon.

Dr. Robert P. Bay performed the operation, which was successful. Peritonitis later developed, however, and her condition is critical, although it is thought she will recover.

Mrs. Kernan became ill Saturday. After an examination it was found that Mrs. Kernan had appendicitis and that an operation was necessary. There were no boats from Rock Hall scheduled to leave in time to take her to the city, and then it was that the oysterman prepared his craft for the journey.

THE STORE WHERE YOUR MONEY BUYS THE BEST VALUES

There are two ways in which merchants attempt to increase the purchasing power of their customers' money. One is the "catchpenny" method of clipping a cent or two from the price of a more or less standard article. The other—the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. way—is to pay the very top price for each article to be sold at a given price, thereby insuring the utmost value in that article.

In other words, the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. policy is to sell the best 25c stockings, the best 25c handkerchiefs, the best $1.00 gowns, the best $10.00 trimmed hats, the best $25.00 tailored suits that can be sold at these prices.

So, while on individual purchases, our prices may seem a penny or two higher, the woman with $1.00 or $5.00 or $10.00 or $25.00 or $100.00 to spend will get more real value for the amount expended than she can possibly get in any other store.

Spring is here—and the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. stocks of merchandise for spring are wonderfully attractive. See them when you come to Baltimore.
