Dr Sir

I called at Mr. Carrolls when I saw no person but a servant girl who informed me that Mr Carroll went on Saturday to Mr. Rd Lewis, & is expected to return either on saturday monday next,

Yrs &c

A King

Jas Lee Esq:

2d May 1804

Dear Sir

Annapolis 29th April 1804

I was yesterday favored with your letters of the 24th & 27th instants; the latter covered Robt. Wilson's, the Cashier of the Mand bank, receipt for $970 equal to £363.15.0 I shall draw on him for £345.10.6, wh will leave a balance in his hands in your favor, of £18.4.6 subject to your order, and the draft will express that so much of the $970 remains at yr disposal.

I wrote to Mr. Dan. Carroll of Duddington on the 21st instant & inclosed in my letter a power of attorney to him from Messrs. Gilmor & sons for transferring some on the books of the treasury of the US some Louisiana stock. As Mr. Carroll has not answered my letter, he has either not received it, tho' sent by post, or he is not in the city of Washington.

I beg you to enquire whether ~~whether~~ Mr. Carroll has received my letter, and to inform me by the return of the post whether it has been received, and if he is now in the city of Washington, or if not, when he is expected there. Your compliance with this request will oblige

Dr Sir

Yr most hum. Servant

Ch. Carroll of Carrollton

394

MdHS 1974 [1114-394]