PEOPLE BELIEVE IN GOV. WILSON

Courage and Skill Show His Fitness For Presidency.

REGARDED AS SECOND TILDEN

President of North Carolina College Outlines Career of New Jersey Executive and Declares He Is the Man Who Will Get the Most Votes In the Right States.

By L. L. HOBBS,
President of Guilford (N. C.) College.

Governor Wilson's career has been such as to reveal his powers both intellectual and administrative, and his course as governor of New Jersey—a very difficult position to fill—has been so marked by courage and skill that his fitness for the presidency came into the minds of the people all over the country with the belief that a second Tilden had arisen.

This was no sudden bursting forth of his powers, for the distinguished scholar had risen in an orderly way step by step, to eminence and fame. He was known to the world of scholars as a man who expressed and who was expected to express in the clearest possible terms the best sentiment and the profoundest philosophy on all problems of education and of educational interest in this country. His literary productions in the way of American history and his work "The State," used as a textbook in many colleges, have been in a field of learning that will be of the greatest use to him and the country in case he becomes president.

Clearness of Utterance.

Governor Wilson's intellectual penetration is not surpassed by any man in public life, and his power of speech is scarcely equaled in this country. Generally clearness of utterance follows clearness of perception. The fact that his work in life has been mainly in educational fields, so far from being a hindrance, as some pretend to think, must necessarily be helpful in fitting him in the adjustment of means to special ends. As president of a great university and as governor of a great state he has had a good field in which to display his executive ability.

Moral courage. The president of our great nation needs to be man of the utmost integrity of character, a man whose judgment in respect to right and wrong has become keen by a life of uprightness that is so well known that the people will know that when he speaks he means what he says. Cleveland is the shining example of this virtue in American history. Governor Wilson's public and private life leads me to believe he possesses that sterling integrity of character that would be the greatest possible relief to us in this day of vacillation and uncertainty in respect to public utterances.

He Is Calm and Thoughtful.

At this time, when we behold an aspirant to the office of president who several years ago declared in explicit and unmistakable terms that he would under no circumstances allow himself to be considered a candidate and who today in terms just as unmistakable announces himself for a third term—at such a time it would be an infinite relief to have the opportunity of casting a ballot for a man who is calm and thoughtful and who cannot be moved from the path of simple honesty and integrity any more than the sun can be turned from its course. Such a man I think Woodrow Wilson to be.

The controlling reason should be that, all things considered, Governor Wilson will be the strongest candidate the Democrats can name—that is, the one who will be most likely to win the contest for election. We are not by any means to conclude that a nomination means an election, and the great problem for the Democrats now is to find the man who will get the most votes and get them in the right states. In my judgment Governor Wilson has the best prospect of success in case of nomination for the simple reason that he is well known to be a man of vast capabilities, both intellectual and moral. He can be depended upon more than any other man in America at this time to say the right thing at the right time and to follow his words by corresponding action.

THE PEOPLE LIKE WOODROW.

[Sharpsburg (Ky.) World.]

Here are some of the reasons why the people like Governor Woodrow Wilson, who ought to be nominated for president by the Democrats:

He is democratic.
Believes in the rule of the people.
Practices what he preaches.
Is man enough to acknowledge his mistakes.
Not afraid to change his mind.
Wears no man's collar.
Broke the power of both political machines in New Jersey.
Refused the aid of Wall street.
Declined to "play politics" with Henry Watterson.
Cannot be bought, bluffed or frightened.
Calls a spade a spade.
Is thoroughly progressive.
An honest man.

Huntsville (Ala.) Times: "Woodrow Wilson can beat any man the Republicans choose to nominate against him. Present indications point favorably to the nomination of Mr. Taft by the Republicans, in which event Mr. Wilson will have a walkover."

New Brunswick (N. J.) News: "Senator O'Gorman of New York names Governor Wilson first in his list of available candidates. Coming from the ablest of Tammany men, this is somewhat significant."
