QUEST OF LOVE

So Charmingly Rendered in Stam's Hall This Week is to be Repeated Tuesday Evening, May 7, Followed by a Dance.

By urgent request the management have agreed to repeat "Quest of Love" in Stam's Hall Tuesday evening next, May 7. The price of the tickets will be 35 cents all over the house.

We advise those who wish to secure good seats to reserve them at Stam's Drug Store immediately as many persons were unable to secure seats at the last performance.

The performers in the play extend a cordial invitation to their friends to remain after the performance for a dance.

Every man who saw Quest of Love, with all her Youth and Beauty, Modesty and Love, in Stam's Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings were charmed with her winning ways, and with the support of the various characters which makes this play the most enjoyable ever seen in Chestertown in years. A fine audience was present at each performance, which attests the fact that the people of the town are interested in the splendid work of the Civic Society, and are cooperating with it in making Chestertown one of the most beautiful towns in the State. For Everywoman's sake we forbear a description of the cast of splendid characters, but shall not fail to give our praise to those who arranged the play and made it such a success socially and financially. It is a great compliment to our town that we have in our midst such an array of fine talent, which upon such short notice, and with such good grace and ease can present a play as acceptably as Quest of Love was produced. We congratulate the management and those who had parts, and we venture to suggest that the play could be given with success in Centreville, whose good citizens no doubt would give the performers a fine reception in their opera house. A splendid sum, about $225, to be used for civic improvement was realized.

Memorial Service.—The Epworth League of Betterton M. E. Church held a memorial service for the late Sunday school Superintendent, Mr. George E. Owens, Sunday morning. The service was conducted by Rev. E. H. Collins, of Parsonsburg, a former pastor of Betterton. The front of the church was banked with flowers and palms and the "vacant chair" was draped and placed within the chancel. The favorite hymns of the deceased were sung after which Mr. Collins delivered a beautiful and touching sermon, the text, "He Was a Good Man." Following the sermon Mrs. John S. Owens impressively sang a solo "Face to Face" after which the audience softly sang "In That City", a special favorite of Mr. Owens. The whole service was very impressive.

A WRONG IMPRESSION.

We have been informed during the week that the Organization campaigners are putting it out that if Judge Adkins is nominated and elected chief judge that Governor Goldsborough will appoint a Republican as associate judge who will hold office for nine years or for Judge Adkins' unexpired term. This is a great mistake, and the Organization people should not be guilty of such campaigning. The Governor's appointee will hold office for a little less than a year, and if Governor Goldsborough appoints Mr. Warburton, of Cecil county, as it is conceded that he will do, it is absolutely necessary for the Democrats to select a man from Cecil county to oppose Mr. Warburton, and Mr. Constable is the proper man to oppose Mr. Warburton. The Organization is making it possible to have a Republican on the bench for the next fifteen years by forcing Constable for chief judge.

LEADERS WITH ADKINS.

JUDGE ADKINS has the almost unanimous endorsement of the members of the bar of Queen Annes county, and the unanimous endorsement of the bar of Caroline and Talbot. Constable has the unanimous endorsement of only his home county, Cecil, and the endorsement of only five of the Kent bar, and four of them are dyed-in-the-wool Organization men. Judge Adkins is also being heartily supported by Congressman J. Harry Covington, Senator Richard S. Dodson, State Insurance Commissioner Wm. Mason Shehan, Land Commissioner Thomas A. Smith, Senator E. E. Goslin and Senator J. Frank Harper. With the exception of former Governor Crothers, of Cecil county, who through "home county" courtesy is supporting Mr. Constable, NOT A SINGLE STATE LEADER OR EASTERN SHORE OFFICIAL IN THE CIRCUIT IS SUPPORTING MR. CONSTABLE in his fight for the chief judgeship. This proves conclusively that the vast majority of the members of the bar in the circuit as well as the prominent leaders of the Democratic party in the circuit believe that Judge Adkins is the proper man to nominate for chief judge, or they would not be supporting him. Now that is the milk in the cocoanut. Here in Kent the fight has developed into a factional fight, with the Organization forces doing everything in their power to nominate Constable, simply as a thrust at Hope H. Barroll, Esq., and his friends in this county. They are for Constable not because they believe ~~him to be the~~ logical man or the best fitted man, but simply because Mr. Barroll and his friends in this county have declared for Judge Adkins, the logical and best equipped man for the great and responsible honor. We desire the voters of this county to think well of this point because it is a fact clearly patent to all. In every other county in the circuit except Cecil, the Organization forces and Anti-Organization forces are working together for the elevation of Judge Adkins to the chief judgeship, because they believe he is entitled to it by reason of years of experience on the bench, and because they have confidence in the judgment, ability and strength of Judge Adkins as a vote getter in an election. But here in Kent Mr. Constable's candidacy is besmirched by sordid partisan considerations, and only because the Anti-Organization throughout the county are for Judge Adkins, the Organization is opposing him with Constable, simply as a stab at the Anti-Organization, which sees, along with the leaders all over the circuit, the importance of a man like Judge Adkins on the ticket this fall. Judge Adkins should carry Kent by a big majority as a rebuke to those who have injected partisan politics into the election of our judges. Does such partisanship have a tendency to keep politics out of our courts?

FORMER GOVEREOR CROTHERS, who is a strong advocate of Governor Woodrow Wilson for president in speaking of the availability of the Governor as a candidate says:

"Say as strongly as you please that I am for Wilson and hope to see him nominated. I think the party will make a big mistake if it fails to name him. He is our biggest figure nationally, really the only national candidate that we have. I know the other candidates, and appreciate their strength, but I think Wilson is the strongest leader we have. He is strong all over the country, and the people are fond of him. He is of real Presidential size, and would make a splendid campaign if nominated, and if nominated would be elected. Of that, there is not the slightest doubt in my mind.

CONGRESSMAN J. HARRY COVINGTON will have no opposition in the primaries to be held Monday and as the Republicans failed to file the name of a candidate in the primaries the Congressman will have a walk-over in the general election and is assured of his nomination and election without opposition. This is a great compliment to Congressman Covington and shows that his record has been such a good one in Congress that the Republicans saw it was a hopeless task to try and defeat him and therefore they failed to put up a candidate against him.

AS cordially as the Organization hates Hope H. Barroll and the TRANSCRIPT, who are for Wilson, do you suppose for one moment that the Organization would be saying they are for Wilson if they weren't trying to ride their delegates into the State Convention on Wilson's back? Not a bit of it.
