Buy a Gasoline Engine You Can Depend Upon

TWO engines may look equally good, may even work equally well for a time. In the end one proves satisfactory, the other becomes a nuisance. Why?

The satisfactory engine is one that is carefully built, and thoroughly tested.

Thorough testing takes time and costs money. It means careful adjustment under trying conditions. It is an expensive process, but a necessary one if the finished engine is to be dependable.

I H C Gasoline Engines Are Thoroughly Tested

No engine leaves the factory until it has proved itself thoroughly dependable. That is reason enough for buying an I H C engine. It is a good buy because it is dependable—it is dependable because it is thoroughly tested. If you want engine satisfaction for years to come go to the local dealer and buy an I H C gasoline engine. It is the safe way and by far the cheapest in the long run.

WE WILL venture the assertion that every colored voter in Kent county will go to the polls on Monday and vote. You couldn't keep him away with a regiment of soldiers. How about the white voters? Will they have enough interest in their county, State and nation to take a little time from work and go to the polls, and offset the effect of the negroes' votes. Mr. Farmer, Mr. Fisherman, Mr. Anybodyelse, remember that it is very much to your financial interest who the next President of the United States will be. Be the citizen that you should be and go out to the polls on Monday, and when you get there vote for Woodrow Wilson for Prefident, for JEFFERSON D. AYRES, HARRY DAVIS and CHAS. W. KIBLER, the ORIGINAL and ONLY Woodrow Wilson candidates for delegates to the State Convention, and for WILLIAM H. ADKINS for CHIEF JUDGE. This is the ticket that is going to win, but let us make the majority a decisive.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

GILL—WESTCOTT.

A pretty and attractive wedding took place at 12 o'clock noon, Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Westcott, when their daughter, Ellen Louisa, was married to Mr. Wilbur Draper Gill, of Washington, D. C. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, took place in the parlors which were tastily decorated in a harmony of pink and white wild flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white voil embroidered in white roses and trimed with filet. She carried a beautiful shower of bride roses. The maid of honor, Miss Estilena Derringer, wore a light blue voil and carried pink sweet peas. The best man was Mr. William T. Conboye, of Washington, D. C. The bride was proceeded by two flower girls little Misses Mary Guyon and Martha Lee Westcott, eight bridesmaids, Misses Poly Westcott, Helen Hynson, Rosalie Cain, Virginia Cain, Helen Urie, Louise Crane, Rebecca Aldridge and Susan Stam formed an aisle through which the bride on her father's arm marched to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March rendered by Miss Elizabeth Connely. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The happy couple then started on an extended honeymoon after which they will go to Nashville, Tenn., their future home.

WHITE—RINGGOLD

St. Peter's P. E. Church, Salisbury, was the scene of a fashionable wedding at 9 o'clock on Thursday night of last week, when Miss Julia Ethelyn Ringgold, daughter of Mrs. Josias Ringgold, became the bride of John Cleveland White, an insurance broker of that city. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. David Howard.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Judge J. A. Pearce, of Chestertown, Md., and was attended by Mrs. John M. Toulson, of this city, as matron of honor, Miss Catherine Nicols, of Baltimore, as maid of honor, and six bridesmaids, Miss Edith Moore, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Hines and Miss Louisa Urie, of Chestertown, Md.; Miss Alice Roberts, of Prince George's, Md.; Miss Mary Lee White, sister of the groom, and Miss Martha Toadvine, of Salisbury.

Little Maud Toulson, a niece of the bride, was flower girl, and G. Vickers White, brother of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Hubert Ringgold, Houston Toulson, of Baltimore; William Cooper, Raymond Truitt, Roscoe White and W. S. Gordy, Jr., of Salisbury. The ribbon boys were Master J. McFadden Dick, Jr. and Master Chauncey J. Osmore, Jr., of this city.

The gowns were the handsomest ever seen there. The bride wore white satin, trimmed in old Spanish lace, with a long Spanish veil caught with lilies of the valley. She carried white Bride roses and lillies of the valley. The matron of honor wore pink and white crepe meteor over white satin, trimmed with pearls. She wore a large picture hat and carried sweetpeas.

The maid of honor had a gown of blue messaline draped in pink marquisette, trimmed with opals. She carried pink sweetpeas. The bridesmaids were gowned in pink flowered chiffon, trimmed with real lace. They wore black picture hats and carried pink roses.

A large reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 206 Isabella street, after the ceremony, at which about 200 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. White left on the midnight express for a Northern tour. They will be at home, 206 Isabella street, after June 1.

CASH—WILKINS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin N. S. Wilkins, 1109 Edmondson avenue, Baltimore, Saturday at noon, when their daughter, Miss Helen Gray Wilkins, was married to Robert Lee Cash, of Union Bridge, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard B. Hogue, rector of Ascension Protestant Episcopal Church. The bride was dressed in a light traveling coat suit, with hat and gloves to match. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Paul Wilkins, as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Raymond and Morris G. Wilkins. A reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cash left for a trip South. On their return they will reside in Kansas City, Kan., where Mr. Cash is engaged in the grain business. The bride is well-known in this county, having taught school in Quaker Neck for sometime.

WURDEMAN—GRAVES.

Miss Dorothy Graves, granddaughter of Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, of this town, and Mr. Henry Wurdeman, a prominent resident of Washington, D.C., were married in Washington on Tuesday.

Married.

BRAMBLE—BRAMBLE.—At the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, Md., Tuesday, April 30th, 1912, by Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., Judge James Bramble and Mrs. Mary Bramble, both of Kent county.

HELPFUL WORDS

From a Chestertown Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?
Does it ache, especially after exertion?
Is there a soreness in the kidney regions?
These symptoms indicate weak kidneys;
There is danger in delay.
Weak kidneys fast get weaker.
Give your trouble prompt attention.
Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly.
They strengthen weak kidneys.
Read this Chestertown testimonial.

John M. South, photographer, Imperial Hotel, Chestertown, Md., says: "I suffered a great deal from my back and kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular, and I had pains through my sides and back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Toulson's drug store and they gave me entire relief. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest praise."
