COLONIAL
"LA POLOMA"

IN ALL LEATHERS

$4.50

This is one of the many bewitching models of FOOT DRESS we are showing. The Colonial is very much in vogue this season, and is worn by the leaders of fashion throughout the land.

☞Come in and take a critical look.☜

MILLINERY

Easter week was a great week in millinery. We were all prepared, and hence could accommodate the trade. Many stylish novelties were entirely disposed of, but Miss Wheatley was in Philadelphia the first of this week, and really it looks like the season has just started---such is the splendid variety of the fill-ins. And, too, millinery was somewhat lower in price at wholesale houses, and of course you get your hat at a lower price on account of this large after-Easter purchase. Come and see for yourself.

Silk Pongee 39c per yd.

You know Pongee is good this season. We have all colors, and next week it will be sold at 39c per yard. These are 60c values, and you are fortunate to buy them at the above price.

HOSIERY.

We are ready with our splendid display of Spring Hosiery, the best selection that fashion and fancy can suggest. All Hosiey in prices with our usual moderation.

☞Our 25c and 3 for $1.00 lines are very strong.

You should see our line of Underware, Dress Goods and Linings, Embroideries, Linens, Draperies, Ginghams, Percales, Trunks, Suit Cases, Neckwear and Fancy Notions.

MR. CURTIS E. CRANE has been making the statement during the week that he and Mr. Charles W. Kibler are working together for election as delegates to the State Convention. This is unfair to Mr. Crane's running mates. A vote for Capt. Crane is directly against Mr. Kibler, and no man can vote for Capt. Crane without voting against Mr. Kibler and his running mates, Messrs. Harry Davis and Jefferson D. Ayres. It looks like Capt. Crane is for Capt. Crane, and Messrs. Herman B. Massey and Carroll Wilson can take care of themselves.

WALL STREET and the great money interests of the county are behind Roosevelt's candidacy for president. They know he is strong with the people. Hearst, an ally of Wall street, and ex-Senator Pettigrew and ex-Senator Dubois, both former Republican senators of the Wall street brand, are using their money and influence for Champ Clark, because they know it will be easier for Roosevelt to beat Clark than it would be to beat Wilson. The hand of Roosevelt is in the Democratic contest. He is endeavoring to pick the weakest candidate with the masses of the people all over the country, in order to make it easy for him to get to the White House a third time. Hearst is an ally of Roosevelt in advocating Clark, just as much as are Pettigrew and Dubois. There is the danger to the Democratic party in nominating Clark.

JEFF D. AYRES, Harry Davis, Chas. W. Kibler, ex-Governor Frank Brown, ex-Governor Austin L. Crothers, Attorney-General Edgar Allen Poe, Comptroller Emmerson C. Harrington, State Insurance Commissioner W. Mason Shehan, Senator Blair Lee, Congressman J. Harry Covington, the close friends of Congressman J. F. C. Talbott, the close friends of United States Senator John Walter Smith, ex-Congressman Joshua W. Miles, ex-Congressman Thomas A. Smith, ex-Mayor J. Berry Mahool, Hon. Wm. L. Marbury, president Ira Remsen, of the Johns Hopkins University, the Baltimore Sun and the CHESTERTOWN TRANSCRIPT are using their influence for the nomination of Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, for President of the United States.

John J. Mahon, Robert Padgett, Frank Kelley, Mayor Preston, the Baltimore city Organization, the Kent county Organization, Curtin E. Crane, Herman B. Massey, Carroll Wilson, their candidates for delegates, are for CHAMP CLARK. Voters of Kent county, who are you for?

RINGGOLD—STEPHENS.

At the Tabernacle Lutheran Church, Fifty-ninth and Spruce streets, Philadelphia, Miss Nellie P. Stephens, daughter of Mrs. Beatrice E. Stephens and the late Wm. B. Stephens, was married to Mr. Robert Gamble Ringgold on Wednesday evening, April 24th, after which a reception was held at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Fred G. Winters, 13 N. Sixty-second street. Mr. and Mrs. Ringgold will be at home after June 1st at 1606 N. Sixteenth street, Philadelphia.

KREEGER—ANTHONY.

The marriage of Miss Fannie Anthony to Mr. Samuel Kreeger, one of our popular jewelers, will be solemnized to-day at noon at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Anthony, in Queen Annes, near Chester bridge. No cards in the county.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Chester City, Kent County, Md.
May 1st, 2612.

The Chestertown TRANSCRIPT, Dear Sirs—I am an old lady 78 years old. Whenever I ride through our beautiful county and a hole or ridge is in the road, or there is the slightest break in any of our beautiful boulevards, so that an automobile or carriage is jarred by coming in contact with any obstruction; as we pass such rough places, one always says, "Oh, Gibbs!" This I have done ever since I was a little girl. My mother and her mother used to utter the same exclamation. None of us know what this strange word means. Every time anyone is jolted on the roads, everyone says, "Oh Gibbs!" I have asked many persons if they knew why the word was used or how it came to be used in connection with our public roads.

In reading an old letter, written in 2310, by a gentleman who resided in Sassafras city to a friend in Fair city I found the same expression was used by him to signify roughness or uneven roads. We do not find the word in our latest dictionary. Can you tell me of its origin and how the expression which is local to this county ever came into use? I heard several gentlemen in the year 2600 discussing it at a dinner party given in the city of Rock Hall. One of them declared "Oh, Gibbs!" had been in use at least 700 years in this county but the origin was a matter of dim antiquity.

Some people in the city of Massey claim it relates back to a time when a man who worked the public roads, some centuries ago, had them in such condition that those who traveled them, during his term of office, would say, every time their carriage bumped, "Oh, Gibbs!" Each time an automobile went over a particularly rough spot, "Oh, Gibbs!" But whether this had anything to do with the name of the gentleman, as descriptive of then existing conditions, traditions say nothing. But if perchance the engineer of those days did give his name to such places, was he a Marylander, Delawarean or other foreigner? Can you throw any light upon the subject in your columns? Perhaps, some of your readers can add to our slight knowledge of this interesting subject? AUNTIE—"Oh, Gibbs!"

Telephone Improvements.

A large force of employees for the Diamond State Telephone Company are engaged in stringing, approximately, 10,000 feet of aerial cable in Chestertown, which will replace the existing unsightly overhead wires. This improvement is necessary not only to improve the service, but to take care of the growing business in the town. When the cable has been put into service, several hundred miles of open wire will be removed. The improved appearance of the pole lines and the efficiency of the service will be much appreciated.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear husband, Christopher A. Little, Jr., who departed this life one year ago the 29th of April, 1911, at his home in the town of Golts, Md. Gone, but not forgotten by his beloved wife and children.

Sweet be thy rest.
