Now my Dear Eliza for the pleasure of a few lines to your dear little Ladyship, What shall I Rejoice with — Let me be certain I not intersper with such subjects as Sister will enlarge upon — first Her Ma — Pally to day with her little ones all of whom are charmingly well but the poor mother who was in bed not ill. but unwell with a cold and is most anxious to see you all safe back again. many weddings are to take place soon Miss Peter not yet married Bob Peter left Alexandria & moved to his mother — Cousin Ann's sister he sets to his brothers & left Mr David he gave $6 & a horse Pam to the others — With the Miss Mrs Bird to day all well Sir Jere Heacock — last nights drawing room had but a few attendants more of distinction — Parmer is here & discarded it is said by the fair ones — Mr Madison Dan told Mr Brown most high so that you must make Best Show very large ere you appear at Court — There is speculation about the stocks see my uncles letter — Look to home in getting my Father well & pray for that all of you may get into port before the roads get worse Sir If Sister can get daily for some days he will be of use there & you can ride with him in that the other is the carriage with my father this all may come down at the same time & you will have it your power to take care of my father on the road this will do well. Mrs Hart Hayes — I shall be very close some without you all I have a house full of servants & nothing for them to do — There is a most miserable gravel intire Mrs R. S. Jones Gateleve they do not even speak & Dr Jones Sure all is quite busy in making preparations to settle the differences your friends are all very well your company I trust shall be attended to & God rest and bless you all

Yours William Lee

A Clergyman return this day for Fredk to under stand perfectly to that if you will send him a letter immediately you can get him at before you come down
