George Town, District of Columbia,
May 27. 1811.

In the late letter I had the honor to address to you, I very sincerely expressed my expectations I have been happy to say the arrangement made produced the money I proposed to raise to pay the balance due to the estate of the late Mr. Booth, & on the 5 of April it was paid into the hands of Mrs. Murdock Admx. of the late Mr. George Murdock. I wrote to Mr. Charles Neil to attend a meeting with which I proposed should take place & Mr. John Booth to accompany the Quantity of the land which belonged of the Bank & the expressed wrote promised Mr. Booth would attend meeting to accompany him & express an earnest desire to have this transaction brought to a close; but have neither seen or heard from them since. Mr. Booth appeared very with the interest, as well as mine, that the business should be concluded as speedily as possible. a request from you might be a means of accelerating
Gentlemen
this, if Mr. Neil would attend.
