WILL OF E. R. HOFFMAN.

Leaves Big Estate To Relatives And Friends.

The will of the late Edwin R. Hoffman, known as "South Baltimore's oldest bachelor," filed for probate in the Orphan's Court Wednesday, leaves his entire estate in trust to his sister, Mrs. Angelina A. Strong, and his friend, Joseph M. Watkins, after paying his just debts and funeral expenses. Mrs. Strong is to receive the net income for life. Upon her death the estate is to be devided as follows:

Walter B. Strong, nephew of Mr. Hoffman, $10,000 and the Beck farm, in Broad Neck, Kent county, Md., with all the farming implements and live stock.

Mrs. Joseph M. Watkins, niece, $12,000 and the house, 2011 Maryland avenue.

Maria C. Lamb, a cousin, of Milwaukee, Wis., $5,0000.

Lawrence P. Strong, son of Mr. Hoffman's nephew, Walter B. Strong, the Lankford farm, in Kent county, Md.

The Grey's Inn Point farm, in Kent county, Md., with all the farming implements and live stock, and the income from $10,000 to Mrs. Edgar H. Strong, wife of Mr. Koffman's nephew, for life, and then to Mr. Strong for life, with remainder to such persons as she shall name in her will, or to Mrs. Strong's decendants if she does not dispose of the legacy by her will.

Edgar H. Strong, nephew, the income from $1,000 for life, upon the named conditions.

Mrs. Laura Lillian Strong, widow of Herbert R. Strong, nephew, his income from $10,000 for life or until she marries again, with remainder to Mrs. Strong's decendants.

Mrs. Earl R. Strong, a cousin, of Rock Hall, Kent county, the income from $10,000 and the houses and lots 616 West Barre street and 615 Wayne street for life, with remainder to such persons as she shall designate, or to her cdildren.

The residue of the estate is left by the will equally to Mrs. Edgar H. Strong, Walter B. Strong and Mrs. Joseph M. Watkins, the share of Mrs. Strong to be held in trust as the specific bequest to her.

Mrs. Angelina M. Strong and Mr. Joseph M. Watkins were named as executors, the former being excused from bond, and the latter's bond being fixed at $50,000.

The first of the two codicils to the will substitutes the house 2219 St. Paul street for the house 2011 Maryland avevene in the bequest to Mrs. Joseph M. Watkins.

The second codicil gives $250 to Delia McHale and $150 to Mary McHale, provided in each case the legatee was in Mr. Hoffman's service at the time of his death.

Mr. Hoffman died May 2, in his eightyninth year at his home, 425 Sharp street. He began life as a painter and decorator and never married.

The provisions of the will become effective at once, as Mrs. Angelina Hoffman died several years ago.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

KREEGER—ANTHONY.

The marriage of Miss Fannie Anthony to Mr. Samuel S. Kreeger, one of our popular jewelers was solemnized on Saturday at noon. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Anthony in Queen Annes by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The bride wore a handsome gown of white, and was attended by little Miss English, a niece, as flower girl. The wedding march was played by Miss Sue Dunbracco. A reception to the bridal party and a number of invited guests followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kreeger left on the afternoon train for a short wedding trip. They have apartments at the Voshell House.

Betterton Notes.

House cleaning is the order of the day among the ladies.

The ladies aid society met at the home of Mrs. Luik. Seventeen members were present, and all business of the society was fixed up to the present. The meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Littleton Crew.

The Epworth League held their business and social meeting at the home of Mr. Wm. H. Crew. A good many members answered to the roll call. The social committee had arranged a very interesting program.

Miss Elsie Crew visited friends in Baltimore the past week.

Miss Bertha Price, of Still Pond, has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Price.

Mr. Chas. Bacon is out again and is improving rapidly.

Mr. Howard Turner sold to Mr. John Bennett and auto milk wagon. Mr. Turner is in a position to sell you anything in the way of machinery for the farm, also any kind of machine for the road. The worst trouble is we need the roads.

The ladies of Betterton expect to hold a shad supper on the public square Saturday, May 18. We hope everybody will come and help this worthy cause.

The ladies aid society served lunch on election day. The amount taken in was small, but they felt they were paid for their efforts.

Kennedyville Items.

The unsettled weather of the past week has delayed the farmers in planting corn.

Wheat and grass is growing and looking very good, but there is considerable sickness among the farmers horses. The past winter was severe on stock as well as man.

Well the Kennedyville boys arrived safe and sound from the ball game at Blacks on Saturday last. They sized the Blacks boys up and lost the game, now to-day they will have another game with Blacks at the Kennedyville grounds and a very interesting game no doubt will be played.

Monday night being stormy there was no meeting of the grange so no doubt there will be a very interesting meeting on Monday night. The Still Pond Grange has sent the Kennedyville Grange a very cordial invitation to attend their meeting on Tuesday afternoon next at which time Mrs. A. L. Harris will give a special talk on planning meals. Mrs. Harris took a course of lectures at the M. A. C. this year. This talk no doubt will be very helpful, especially to the ladies. Mrs. Harris gave a very interesting talk at the Pomona Grange in Fairlee this spring.

Mr. W. M. Clendaniel returned to the hospital in Richmond the past week. We hope he will soon be home again restored to his usual good health and vigor.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of JOHN A. COPPER, who departed this life four years ago, May 8th, 1908.

My dear boy, how I miss you,
Miss you more than tongue can tell,
Every hour and day that passes
Brings me nearer with you to dwell.
MOTHER.

Though not dead, what a beautiful thought,
To cheer us through life's dreary way;
Not dead, but blooming into life
Where there is eternal day.
WIFE.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband JOHN W. ELBURN, who died one month ago to-day, May 11th, 1912.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.

Husband, I am so sad and lonely
Since you have gone from me;
And it seems there is no pleasure
In this dreary world for me.
BELOVED WIFE.

Farewell, dear father, is an awful word,
Which pierces to my heart;
But, oh, it is the will of God
Our dearest ones must part.
SON HERBERT W.

As the evening sun is setting,
Oftimes as I sit alone,
In my heart there comes a feeling
If my dear father could only come home.
DAUGHTER ELMA E.

Father, little did I know
When I left you the night before,
That God would call you so soon,
And I would never see you alive on earth any more.
Father, you were called away so sudden,
Without time to say good bye;
But we know your thoughts were of us
When you were asked to die.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER IVA.
