Winchester Sept. 13. 1811.

Dear Sir

Your obliging Letter by some mistake did not reach me so soon as it ought, I have answered it immediately and hope you will not have left Major Clark before my Letter arrives. I cannot sufficiently express my obligation to you for your kind assurances respecting my Brother and whether you should succeed or not, I shall feel myself equally grateful. Mr. Lee is at present at Cotton Hill and I believe will remain there sometime, as a letter received from him within a short time he says he shall be most happy to see you and shew you every civility in his Power — 1243

Mr. Lee himself hope you will be able to pay
