Georgetown Feby: 9, 1813.

1416

My dear Father,

I have written to you this morning by a man named Nichols who with two others are engaged by Mr Johnson to bring down wheat from Neco-wood here. He engages to give $1.62½ for the bushel weighing 60 lbs. The amount in bushels to be regulated by the receipts of the waggoners he employs. When you give them their loads, you will state how much more you can spare, as I am bound only for load for three waggons which he now sends up. They must not be sent away empty. If you have not got it, it may be purchased in the neighbourhood. Auld is paid in full $617.68. and the judgment entered up satisfied. Only $450. have been sent by Mr Shaw, or rather your check to that amount sent up by the Bank of Columbia was

Thomas S. Lee Esq.
Nicodemus

Feby 9, 1813

MdHS 1974 [1174-1416]