The Transcript.

BE sure to read the New York World's indorsement of Govenor Woodrow Wilson for President on page 3. It is a convincing argument in favor of the availability of the New Jersey Governor.

THE Board of County Commissioners will meet on Monday next to declare the tax rate for 1912. Make it an even $1, if possible, and lower if it can be done in accordance with actual expenses.

DR. JAMES W. CAIN, President of Washington College, delivered the address last Tuesday night at the 31st annual commencement of the Baltimore Medical College and the Dental Department in Albaugh's Theatre. Dr. Cain made a decided hit with his audience in his reference to the war of words now on in the Republican party between Taft and Roosevelt.

THE Board of County Commissioners passed a resolution at their meeting on Tuesday not to pay for any more tobacco used by the prisoners in the Chestertown jail. From the striking of the levy in June of last year to Sheriff Medders retirement, which was about six months, the bill for tobacco presented to the board amounted to $44 40. This, the commissioners deem, a useless expense of the tax-payers' money and they have notified Sheriff McKee of their action. 'Tis needless to say that the tax payers will appreciate such action on the part of the commissioners.

Board of Public Works Appoints.

The Board of Public Works, Governor Goldsborough, Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington and Treasurer Murray Vandiver, met on Wednesday in Annapolis and made the following appointments:

Shellfish Commissioners—Benjamin K. Green, Somerset county, chairman. Frank S. Revell, Anne Arundel county. William H. Maltbie, Baltimore city.

Bank Commissioner—J. Dukes Downes, Caroline county.

Commander of Fishery Force—T. C. B. Howard, Dorchester county.

The board failed to re-elect John F. O'Mally, of Howard county, as State Auditor. Efforts will probably be made by O'Mally to secure his qualification as auditor through the courts.

TO COMMAND FISHERY BOATS.

Those selected to command the different boats of the Fishery Force were:

Deputy Commander Capt. James A. Turner, Wicomico county, in command of the steamer Governor McLane.

E. J. Plowden, St. Mary's county, to command the Bessie Jones.

Frank Akers, Kent county, the Anna B. Smith.

William H. Sanders, Anne Arundel county, the May Brown.

John P. Sewell, Queen Anne's county, the Frolic.

E. N. Dixon, Anne Arundel county, the Daisy Archer.

Luther S. Miles, St. Mary's county, the Folly.

Milbourne Woolford, Dorchester county, the Julia Hamilton.

Captains of the Brown, Smith and Jones and the Nellie Jackson will be elected later.

Mr. Akers, the new commander of the Anna B. Smith, was first mate on the Smith under Capt. Ashley, and he was strongly urged for the place by Mr. Wm. W. Beck.

Officers Elected at Annual Meeting at Elkton.

The forty-fourth annual meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Easton, which was in session in Trinity Church, Elkton, Tuesday and Wednesday, came to a close Wednesday night with a service celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of Bishop William Forbes Adams' election as bishop of this diocese. Addresses were made by Bishop Murray, of Baltimore; Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown, and Rev. Dr. Rich, of Easton. Bishop Adams was born in Ireland, coming to America when very young. Prior to being elected bishop of this diocese he was missionary bishop of Arizona and New Mexico.

The standing committee, which is the ruling body of the diocese, was elected Wednesday, as follows: Rev. Willam Schouler, of Elkton; Rev. Wm. A. Coale, of Earleville; Rev. W. Y. Beaven, near Easton; Rev. David Howard, Salisbury, and Rev. E. R. Rich, of Easton.

Article 11 of the constitution was changed in regard to the standing committee, so as to admit laymen to representation, and hereafter to be composed of three clergy and three laymen. Article two was also changed so as to have the diocese meet the fourth Wednesday in October, instead of in June. Both of these matters must be ratified at the next meeting of the Diocese.

Officers elected Wednesday afternoon for the ensuing year are as follows: Bishop and president, Rt. Rev. William Forbes Adams; secretary, Rev. Edward R. Rich, of Easton; assistant secretary, Rev. J. Frank Kirk, of St. Michaels; chancellor, Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Chestertown; registrar, Rev. Henry Davis, of Easton; treasurer of the convention Judge Wm. H. Adkins of Easton; treasurer of the diocesan missions, Col. Henry Holliday, of Easton; treasurer of diocesan clergy relief, Edward B. Hardcastle, of Easton.

The Commercial Department—Elsie Rhoda Blyman, Bernice Winifred Clymo, Elizabeth Ann Connelly, John Cornelius Newnam.

The address to the graduates will be made by John D. Urie, Esq., member of the School Board. Music will be furnished by the Chestertown Orchestra, composed of Messrs. Bacon, Cannon, Bordley, Hurlock, Stam and Faulkner.

Mortgagee's Sale

—OF A—

Valuable FARM

Situated in the Second Election District of Kent County, Maryland, near Chesterville.

THE undersigned, by virtue of a power vested in him as assignee of a certain mortgage given by Nathaniel W. Comegys and Helen Comegys to Garrett Foxwell, bearing date the 2nd day of August, 1894, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in Liber S. G. F. No. 2, folios 518, &c., one of the Land Record Books for Kent county, Md., will offer at Public Sale in front of the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Md., on Saturday, the 22nd Day of June, 1912,

BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 11 A. M. AND 12 O'CLOCK NOON:

ALL THAT FARM

OR TRACT OF LAND,

situated, lying and being in the Second Election District of Kent county, near Chesterville,

Containing 150 Acres

OF LAND, MORE OR LESS;

the same having been the residence of the late Nathaniel W. Comegys, and now occupied by G. Spencer Comegys. It lies adjoining the farm so many years occupied by Hon. Garrett Foxwell.

This farm is one of the most attractive places in this, the most fertile section of Kent, which has been recently placed on the market. There is no better soil in the county. It is a medium loam with red clay sub-soil, readily responds to all improvements placed upon it. It will yield large crops of wheat, corn and grass. It is especially adapted to the cultivation of fruits of all kinds. The improvements consist of a comfortable barn, stable and other outbuildings all in good condition.

This farm is especially valuable as a Home. It will yield a good return as an investment. It lies on the west side of the road leading from Chesterville to Black's Station, conveniently situated with reference to railroads, churches, schools and villages.

The wheat crop is reserved. The purchaser will be entitled to one-half of all other crops.

Mr. G. Spencer Comegys will take pleasure in showing this farm to any intending purchaser.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments, payable in 1 and 2 years from the day of sale. All unpaid purchase money to bear interest from the day of sale and to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned. All title papers at the cost of the purchaser. Possession will be given January 1st, 1913. The purchaser will be entitled to pitch all crops and to all the privileges of an incoming tenant.
