LOCAL MATTERS

A Correction.—Our Kennedyville correspondent unintentionally stated that a fire occurred in Mr. Pote's store last week. It was an error, and was caused by our correspondent inclosing us a sheet of an old letter upon which he had written an account of a fire sometime ago. Mr. Pote has had no fire. His stock is just as fine as ever, and his large business is uninterrupted.

Congressman Covington Will Speak.—The Mt. Vernon Literary Society of Washington College has secured Hon. J. Harry Covington to make an address on Monday evening, June 17th, 1912, at 8 o'clock in William Smith Hall. He is a bright and convincing speaker, and the Mt. Vernon Literary Society is to be congratulated on making such a good selection. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

Bad Auto Collision.—Two automobiles, one owned by Mr. Wilbur Hurlock and the other by Mr. Taylor from Elkton came together in front of Mr. Thomas Smith's gate, in Queen Annes, on Tuesday afternoon, and both machines were considerably damaged. Mr. Hurlock was coming into the State road from the Double Creek road, while the Elkton car was proceeding along the State road towards Chestertown. They came together at the intersection of the roads. The Elkton machine was badly damaged—the front wheels were wrenched off, the axle badly bent and the radiator broken. Mr. Hurlock's machine was bent at the axle, the headlights were knocked off and the radiator damaged. There were four occupants in the Elkton car and three in Mr. Hurlock's. Fortunately no one was injured. The drivers claim not to have heard the warning honks from each machine. The Elkton car was brought to Sides' garage for repairs. In the Elkton car besides Mr. Taylor, who is a liveryman, were several Bell Telephone Company inspectors who had been making a tour of inspection.

Mr. Wheat Reappointed Bridge-Keeper.—Authorities who control the Chester River Bridge, since it was turned over to the State Road Commission by act of the last Legislature were in Chestertown on Wednesday and reappointed Mr. Charles L. Wheat keeper of Chester Bridge. This is a most worthy appointment in view of the fitness of the man for the place, and also because of the fact that Mr. Wheat's condition of health is such as to prevent him doing heavy manual labor. A lady friend of the family interceded with Governor Goldsborough for the reappointment of Mr. Wheat, and it was her convincing argument and strong appeal that touched the Governor's heart, and he used his influence with the State Road Commission and the appointment came Mr. Wheat's way. Hurrah for this grand, good woman, who is always doing something for somebody else. We respectfully suggest that the salary of this position is far below what it should be. Since Mr. Wheat assumed charge of the bridge traffic through the draw has doubled, and the duties are sufficiently onerous to justify a substantial increase in salary. It should not be less that $400 and house rent per annum.

¶The first polecat known to frequent this section of Kent county was killed in the horse pond woods on Fancy farm near town, by dogs on Saturday morning. The specimen was black and white and a big male cat. The dogs routed it out of an old tree log, and made short work of it.

¶Mr. Thomas Kibler, who is the crack shortstop of one of the Ohio State League teams, sprained his ankle in a recent game and is now out of the game for a time. Mr. Frank Jarman, who signed to pitch for the same team, is making good, and is popular with the fans.

¶The new road between Queen and Front streets on High is one of the finests piece of road in the State. It is surely a credit to the skill of the constructor, Mr. Adkinson. The sides of the street will be grass sodded, and when finished it will make a most attractive improvement to that part of the town.

¶A horse that Rev. J. A. Arters, of Middletown, Del., was driving last week became frightened and Mr. Arters was thrown about eight feet and suffered severe injuries to his left hand, his forehead and face. Mr. Arters is a relative of Mrs. William E. Ringgold on High street, this town.

¶The state road was oiled last year. Would it not be a good idea if the Town Commissioners would oil the roads in Chestertown? Other towns are using the oil process with great success and it is found to be more economical than sprinkling with water. We suggest that this proposition is worth investigating.

¶A goodly number of farmers attended the demonstration at the farm of Mr. Walter T. Morris on Tuesday afternoon showing the vale of aeriform as a preventive of flies on stock. The demonstration proved the value of the remedy. Mr. Frank Turner, son of Mr. A. S. Turner, has taken the agency for the "fly chaser".

¶Mr. E. L. Mattice, of Baltimore, is making a tour of Kent county in the interest of the Diamond State Telephone. The object of his visit is to establish an "exchange" at Rock Hall. It is sincerely to be hoped that some remedy may be found for the unsatisfactory and very inconvenient "party line" service which is a source of much annoyance to both subscribers and owners of phones generally.

¶County Commissioner Charles D. Wood has rented the Mrs. Hurlock farm near Melitota, now tenanted by Mr. Samuel G. Lee, who will discontinue farming and remove to his property in Fairlee. Mr. Wood has lived in the Fifth District all his life, and we have no doubt that after January 1, 1913, he will feel like a "fish out of water." But Charlie will be popular anywhere. He is on of the best men Kent county has.

¶We received a letter from "Uncle Dan" McKee and daughter on Thursday written on board the Mauretania. We shall publish it in full next week. Miss McKee says she has had the same experience as almost all the new beginners on ocean steamers, she has been a "little shaky in the head and somewhat unsteady on her feet." Her father stood the trip like an old sailor, and is in fine health. A souvenir postcard from them gave a fine view of the palatial ship on which they are traveling.

¶Every man, woman and child in Kent county should hear the great lecture of Congressman Richard Pearson Hobson next week in Chestertown. It is the greatest platform speech we ever heard, and its subject, "The great Destroyer" deals with the Temperance question in a manner that is absolutely unanswerable. We had the privilege of hearing the lecture at the General Conference of the M. P. Church in Baltimore recently, and we can testify to its power.

¶Mrs. William J. Vannort, who has been confined to her home for many months by illness, made a very narrow escape from serious injury on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Vannort went to the wardrobe in her room to get something. She pulled on the key to open the door which was slightly swelled. In an instant the top of the wardrobe tumbled over, fortunately striking Mrs. Vannort only a glancing blow on the shoulder. She suffered no injury save a nervous shock, and a slight stiffness in the shoulder. It was a very narrow escape.

¶A white sport, named John Edwards, hired a team from Mr. Robert J. McWhorter on Monday morning ostensibly to go to Millington. He left Chestertown at 8.30 A. M. on the above day, and that same night he was arrested in Chester, Pa., about 80 miles from Chestertown where he had driven the team. The authorities notified Sheriff McKee, and he and Mr. McWhorter left on Tuesday afternoon for Chester to arrest Edwards, who offered no resistance to being extradited. Sheriff McKee brought his man to Chestertown jail on the noon train on Wednesday, and Mr. McWhorter drove the team home from Chester, arriving here Thursday evening.

Accidents.

Mr. James Donahoe, a tenant on the farm owned by Mr. Wm. Reese, near Millington, met with a serious accident Saturday night, when he fell on a pavement and broke one of his lower limbs. He was immediately taken to his home by Mr. Emory Everett.

Mr. Joseph Pearson, of near Millington, while assisting Mr. Howard Green in loading heavy timber at Mr. J. P. Ahern's saw mill, in some way got his feet caught in the reins and the horses starting up, he was thrown under the wheels breaking his arms and crushing his shoulder blade.

Mr. Edward Maslin whose hand was seriously mangled while at work in Mr. Isaac Huey's saw mill near Massey last week, and which, it was found necessary to amputate upon his arrival at a Philadelphia hospital last week, is getting along well.

A valuable horse belonging to Mr. August Money, near Worton was severely cut about the foot in a runaway in Chestertown on Wednesday morning. The wagon was also slightly damaged.

THE SHOEMAKER ROAD FROM BETTERSON TO STILL POND.

It will be remembered early in the spring application was made by progressive citizens between Still Pond and Betterton asking the State Road Commission to build a Shoemaker Road between those two points. The matter was placed by the County Commissioners in the hands of Hope H. Barroll, their counsel, in order that the desired road, might, if possible, be secured. The correspondence between Mr. Barroll and the State Road Commissioner given below will show our citizens how the matter at present stands. All who are interested in the building of this road should endeavor to meet the State Road Commissioner when he visits Chestertown and see what it is possible to do in order to put the road through.

Chestertown, Md., June 1, 1912.
THE STATE ROAD COMMISSION,
Baltimore, Md.

DEAR SIRS: Early in the spring I wrote to your body asking for information in behalf of our County Commissioners as to the construction of a public road from Betterton to Still Pond. Will you please be so good as to inform me what steps have been taken in reference to the matter and send me such record as may be in your office about the road so that the same may be laid before our commissioners and the people in the section who are interested? And very much oblige,

Yours very truly,
HOPE H. BARROLL,
Atty. for C. Commissioners.

Baltimore, June 4, 1912.
MR. HOPE H. BARROLL,
Chestertown, Md.

MY DEAR SIR: Replying to your valued favor of the 1st inst., with respect to S. A. R. Contract No. 265, from Betterton to Still Pond (4.14 miles), I beg to advise you that application was made February 27, 1912, the survey on which, together with preliminary plans, have been made and is now up for preliminary inspection, which will be made June 10th or 11th, after which final prints and specifications will be ready within 8 days.

The amount available of the State Aid Fund for your county as of October 1, 1911, was $4,585.48.

I expect to be in Chestertown in company with Mr. Miller on Monday or Tuesday of next week, and will be pleased to confer with you, your county authorities and as many of your citizens who are interested in road construction as possible with regard to general road conditions and to ascertain as near as may be what your wishes are.

I cannot at this time say which one of these days we will be in your town, but will advise you by telephone as we work up the peninsula.

Yours truly,
E. E. GOSLIN.

Mr. Goslin's letter has been replied to and he has been advised that the County Commissioners will be in session on Tuesday next, and Mr. Goslin has been requested to be here on that date.
