UNLUCKY SMYTHITES LOSE TO STILL POND-BETTERTON.

The local pennant aspirants lost a game Saturday on Ford's field to the combined forces of Still Pond and Betterton by the score of 8 to 2. Despite the fact that the locals made more hits than the visitors, they were unable to hit in the pinches, and it was not an uncommon occurrence for one or two batters to take the air route when men were stationed on the bags. The visitors scored a trio of runs in the initial inning, likewise in the third and a duet of tallies in the eighth stanza. The locals were unable to score only in the third and eighth sessions. The barehand stops of Jarman and Wheeler, and the one-hand catch of Ford featured. Derringer was the stellar swatsmith for the locals, while L. Crew was the leader with the willow for the visitors. Sparks pitched efficient ball, allowing but six hits.

KENNEDYVILLE TAKES EASY ONE FROM LYNCH-WORTON.

Lynch, June 1st.—Kennedyville defeated the locals here to-day by the one-sided score of 21 to 3. The locals could not hit the slants of Johnson and played ragged ball in the field. Batteries—for Kennedyville, Johnson and Hill; for Lynch-Worton, Lee and Jones.

W. C. RESERVES BEAT CENTREVILLE.

The future stars of Washington College defeated Centreville High School on Washington field Saturday by the score of 8 to 6. Costly errors aided the locals in securing several of their runs. Strong led at bat for the locals, while H. Whitely hit opportunely for the visitors.

Centreville	1	0	1	0	3	1	0	0	0	6	9	5

Batteries—Reserves, Stauffer, Bowen and Knotts; for Centreville, Tucker, Thomas and H. Whitely.

Black's, June 1st.—Millington defeated Black's to-day by the score of 8 to 5. Beck, who was on the firing line for the visitors, had the locals eating out of his hand, striking out nineteen of the local batsmen.

WASHINGTON LOSES IN FOURTEENTH.

Washington College lost to St. John's College, at Annapolis, Friday in a fourteen inning game by the score of 5 to 4. In the extra innings both teams had chances to win, and in the fourteenth the Cadets took advantage of Brown's error and scored. This game made it two straight defeats for the local collegians at the hands of St. John's this season. Kelley starred at bat for Washington.

Wilson Far in Lead.

Governor Wilson's victories in New Jersey and Minnesota, declare the men at Wilson headquarters in Washington, place him far in the lead in the number of delegates chosen to the Baltimore convention. His strength, it is declared, is 368 delegates, while his nearest rival, Speaker Clark, has but 242. Wilson workers give out the following figures as the standing of the Democratic delegates already elected:

Governor Harmon, the bureau says, now has 32 delegates—4 from Nebraska and 28 from Ohio; Governor Foss, Massachusetts, 36; Governor Baldwin, Connecticut, 14; Governor Marshall, Indiana, 30, and Governor Burke, North Dakota, 10.

The uninstructed and doubtful delegates are said to be as follows: Maine, 4; New York, 90; Alaska, 6; Philippines, 6; Michigan, 15; Tennessee, 12, and Virginia, 8, a total of 142.

Governor Wilson issued last week the following statement on the result of the New Jersey primaries:

"I never doubted the result, but I am none the less delighted that the Democrats of the State should have stood by me so generously and with so unmistakable a verdict. Their approval makes me very happy, because it is their judgment of the new regime in our politics in New Jersey, and means that the new order is to be sustained with steadfastness and enthusiasm. New Jersey is permanently enrolled among the progressive States."
