THE LADIES' STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

THE ONE HOUR EARLIER CLOSING OF OUR STORE is meeting with success generally. Our sales ladies are jubilant, our customers favor this humane treatment of our clerks, and we ourselves, are well-pleased with the results. These mornings afford excellent opportunities for shopping, but we will be pleased to attend to your wants anytime from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

DRESS LINENS!

We are showing great values in all kinds of Dress Linens. They include the real light weight, medium and coarse Linens in all colors. Our Blue and Plain White Heavy Linens, 48 in. wide, at 75c per yard are great favorites with the well-dressed woman. 2¼ yds. make a skirt or 3½ yds. make a whole dress. Ask to see these Linens.

Under this head we again call your attention to our 15c Killarney Linen. It looks like linen the more it is washed. None genuine unless "Killarney" is written on the selvage. We have the sole agency for Kent county for this popular goods. 15c per yard.

SPECIAL SALE OF CORSETS!

On Saturday, June 1st, we will put on our $1.50 Special Corset at $1.00 each. The large W. B. Corset Co. made us this Corset, and you will know it in that our name appears on the inside of Corset. It has drawing strings at top, strong, wide garters, low bust and long skirt, and in every way it is a good up-to-date Corset. In order to get a price on this Corset, we had to buy 25 dozen or 300 pairs, hence, we have plenty to supply you. If it is inconvenient to visit the store, 'phone or write to-day from any part of the county, and we will save you a pair. $1.50 Corsets for $1.00.

THE GRIM REAPER.

EDWARD SPENCER CLOUGH.

Edward Spencer Clough died at 3.30 A. M. Sunday of double pneumonia after an illness of two weeks.

Mr. Clough was treasurer-elect of Queen Annes county and would have taken his office Saturday afternoon had he not been ill. This death brings out that while the Clough family in Queen Anne's is prominent and numerous and has been solidly of the Democratic faith, no member of it has ever held an office. The deceased who was the oldest of his family, it was believed, would prove an exception.

Mr. Clough was born in Queen Anne's county December 10, 1841, the son of Noah and Harriet Clough. In 1864 he was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Ringgold at Crumpton. She died 24 years ago. He is survived by nine children. They are:

J. Earle Clough, of Easton; E. Scott, Katie, Ella and W. Levi Clough, of Centreville; Mrs. Mary Harrison, of Hope; Rev. N. C. Clough, of Clarksville. Md.; John F. Clough, of Philadelphia, Rose Clough, of Church Hill, and Wm. R. Clough, of Chestertown.

The Queen Anne's Commissioners will elect a county treasurer and the office will doubtless have many candidates.

JOHN A. SCHWATKA.

Mr. John A. Schwatka died Saturday night at the home of his son, Dr. John B. Schwatka, 822 West North avenue, Baltimore, from the infirmities of age. Mr. Schwatka had been in ill health for the last two months.

Born in Chesterville, Kent county, 78 years ago, he went to Baltimore about 15 years ago, and since had lived with his son. Mr. Schwatka was formerly a funeral director in Chesterville, but retired about 25 years ago. He was a member of Columbus Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Rachael R. E. Schwatka, he is survived by one brother, Mr. Andrew C. Schwatka, of Wilmington, Del.; two sons, Dr. Schwatka, of Baltimore and Dr. William H. Schwatka, of Rock Hall, and five grandchildren.

ANNIE SHALLCROSS.

After a lingering illness of some months, Miss Annie Shallcross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Shallcross, residing near Murphy's mill, near Middletown, died on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the 21st year of her age. She was a lovely young woman and had many friends.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon and were conducted by Rev. Percy L. Donaghay, with burial at St. Anne's cemetery.

MRS. JANE DUNN.

Mrs. Jane Dunn died at her home, near Ruthsburg, Queen Annes county, last Saturday, June 1st, aged 75 years. Funeral was held on Monday morning from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert H. Smith, Chestertown; interment in Chester cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. S. Crawford, Charles S. Smith, M. A. Toulson, J. P. DeCorse, Wm. R. Maul, and John C. Davis. Undertaker in charge, Charles L. Dodd.

ELLEN OLIVIA WILMER.

Ellen Olivia Wilmer died March 16th, 1912. She was a sister of the late Wm. B. Wilmer. The body was rested in a vault at Greenmount cemetery until yesterday, when it was brought to St. Paul's for interment. Dr. Manley Sharpe, rector, officiated. The pall-bearers were: George and James Bell, George Beck, Charles Jessop, P. G. Wilmer and Charles L. Dodd. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

HENRY P. VANSANT.

Henry P., the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Vansant, died at their home near Cliffs, Saturday, June 1.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from Mowbray Chapel, conducted by Rev. Dr. Graham; interment in Bond cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Clifton Hulbert, Edward and Harry Townsend. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

MRS. MARIETTA COOK LEGG.

Mrs. Marietta Cook Legg, widow of Col. William Henry Legg, and mother of J. H. C. Legg, Esq., of the Centreville bar, died at her home 1305 Bolton street, Baltimore, after a lingering illness on Tuesday. The remains were taken to Centreville on Wednesday morning for interment.

WILLIAM P. BIGGS.

Mr. Wm. P. Biggs died at his home in Middletown, Del., on Saturday evening, after an illness of several months, and was 74 years old. He was a sterling Democrat, and was a brother of the late Gov. Benj. T. Biggs, of Delaware.

Rock Hall Items.

Mr. Blaustein was in Baltimore this week. He has arranged with a large furniture concern to furnish patrons with any furniture they may want. Last week he sold four two horse wagon loads to parties on the Eastneck Island and Piney Neck.

Examinations are being held in the Rock Hall High School. There will be the work of all the pupils on exhibition in the manual training department.

Mr. True Durding, who has been in Baltimore for the past school year is at home.

At this writing Mr. A Alexander is very ill.

Quite a number of picture agents are in Rock Hall this week.

Messrs. Arthur Urie and Gus Warner were visitors to Betterton this week looking for openings in the amusements business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey have for their guests this summer, their daughter, Mrs. Mathews, of Chicago, ill.

Mr. B. F. Porter is building a pair of scales for heavy weighing. He intends to establish a coal yard in this town.

Mrs. Andrew Stevens who has been visiting friends in Washington, D. C., has returned to her home on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ayres were Baltimore visitors last week.

The Rock Hall Packing Company is enlarging their plant at Sharp's wharf. Mr. Downey wants to pack asparagus and Strawberries next season.

There was a little craft in this port last week selling sea shells. The captain and his wife have traveled very extensively in the little boat from extreme north to the southernmost parts of the Atlantic coast. Many of our people visited the boat and bought some of the pretty trinkets.

Mrs. Bessie Butler, of Baltimore, was the guest of her father, N. Satterfield, this week.

Still Pond Notes.

Don't forget the Ladies' Aid Society and Epworth League supper and festival at Harper's Hall, Thursday, June 13th.

Miss Lola Capel, of Annapolis, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Charles Jewell.

Mr. A. J. Hackett spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

Mr. Wm. Medders visited Baltimore Tuesday.

Mr. George Harper and family, of New York, motored down last week in their fine touring car to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Mary Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ford spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Ford.

Miss Edith Caldwell, of Galena, spent the week end with her friend, Miss Jennie Bowers.

Miss Ella Fowler, of Worton, visited Mrs. John Jarvis Sunday.

Mr. James Madden, of New York, is spending the week at the home of Mr. Wm. Parr.

Mrs. Howard Atwell and children, of Millington, spent sometime with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

The Children's Day went off alright although a heavy storm came up and drove many home. A few numbers were not rendered on account of the children having to go home. Mrs. Sallie Price and Mrs. Charles Walter deserve the credit of training the children, and special mention should be made of the faithful and untiring organist.
