My dear Eliza Needwood June 7. 1814

1013

It appears to be a long time since I had the pleasure to hear from you, your last letter was dated the 21st May. I fear something is the matter with you, indeed you had lost so much flesh & your complexion was so changed for the worse that there was great cause to apprehend danger of sickness. I beg you will be particularly careful of yourself without neglecting at the same time little Mary Ellen - this time now that she had taken leave of her gentlemanly companion the Whooping Cough - I am much gratified by your kind invitation to Wilmington in August - if possibly can go I will with pleasure & at the same time call upon your brother Tom & his family but it must be coupled with a condition that you will call upon me here in the fall & spend some time, or your

Potesgrello June 4th 1814

Mrs Eliza Morsey
Wilmington,
State of Delaware.

12½

MdHS 1974 [1205-1013]