LOCAL MATTERS

Occupying Summer Home.—Mrs. Robert Nelson Stevens and family have opened "Pleasant Plains," their home near Rock Hall, for the summer. On Thursday June 20, Miss Laurinne Stevens entertained the graduating class of St. Catherins's Normal Institute, of which she is a member. They have as their house guest for several weeks, Miss Lavinia Russell Crouse, of Baltimore.

Live Chicken From Cold Egg.—Mrs. F. J. Steller, of Middletown, while preparing breakfast one day this week of fried eggs, had an experience never before falling to her lot. She had broken one egg and was about to break a second one when "Peek! peek!" was heard. The egg was carefully wrapped up and the next day a bright, healthy little chick was the result. Mrs. Steller is naturally much elated over her incident, and is taking the best care of the little stranger. It may not be out of place to state that the egg came from a crate of eggs purchased in Warwick, Md., of Mr. R. B. Merritt.
