I had the pleasure to receive your letter of the 25th yesterday at the Post Office, after several disappointments - would it not be well for you to go or send to my office at the appointed Hours for the arrival of the Mail, by that one cans you may have an opport.y of answering such letters as may require immediate answers by the return of the Post - the pains Stake to effect that object are much greater - the measure you have adopted to sell the cloth, is very pleasing to me, more especially as I think you must have well grounded hopes of selling to advantage - I feel such anxiety to be clear of my thraldom, that I will consent to take $33 the yard rather than not sell - get as much money that will pass, as the times will afford & transfer the notes forthwith to such of my Creditors as may willingly receive them - in our payments please to begin with Genl Smith, Mr Monroe & let me have as much as possible for Mrs Bancy, who has been greatly & delicately good & kind. I hope the rage for Water property is such that our lots on Rock Creek may become desirable to those who want, & many of those are clear of all Claims - the Numbers I shall
