Woman Suffragists to Parade.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The Woman Suffrage Cause in Maryland is courageous, it must be stronger than the indifferent know. A most beautiful pageant in Baltimore is being planned by the Just Government League of Maryland, assisted by suffragists all over the State and many hundreds outside the State. The big thing is to be the foot marchers, hundreds of them carrying banners, pennants, wands. Of great spectacular effect are to be Joan of Arc on her white charger, the six golden chariots driven by personifications of Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, Washington and California, bearing shield and flags of these States, each car decorated by the proper State flower. There will be significant floats and a caravan for the little children. "Dixie," "My Maryland" and "My Country," will be played by a dozen bands. Hans Schuler, the Baltimore sculptor, has given much time to the artistic planning of the pageant. The National Suffrage Association has sent beautiful decorations and promises people. Washington, D. C., is especially strong in a delegation of men and women of about 300. Send your name to Mrs. Nannie Melvin, the Just Government League, 15 E. Pleasant street, Baltimore, Md., and let her place you among the Eastern Shore paraders, behind your county banner. If you are entered before Monday night, June 24, accommodation for the night.

Republican Convention.

There has been a hot time in Chicago during the week, the Taft and Roosevelt forces fighting like beavers to capture the nomination. The Taft forces drew first blood by electing Senator Elihu Root, of New York, temporary chairman. The Taft forces also control the committee on credentials, which decides who is to vote in the convention. The friends of the president seem to be in control of the convention, and it looks like Taft will win the nomination by a small majority. The Roosevelt forces threaten to bolt the convention and nominate Roosevelt regardless of the actions of the regular convention. A test vote taken Thursday morning show that Taft has 564 delegates to 510 for Roosevelt. If this test proves true Taft has a majority of the delegates, and it looks like this is the situation.
