LOCAL MATTERS

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

Most of our farmers have finished cutting wheat, and a good yield is expected.

Do not forget the big matinee on Piney Plains track this afternoon. There will be an afternoon of fine sport.

Mr. Walter R. Strong, of near Lankford has purchased through Mr. J. F. Thompson, agent, a fine seven passenger Ford car.

Thursday next will be July 4th. Don't lose your head, boys, and get hurt or meet with serious accident in your pleasures.

One of our farmer's wives living near Lankford lost 35 young turkeys in one night last week. They were smothered in the coop.

The first new southern wheat (200 bushels) was received in Baltimore the latter part of last week. It found ready sale at $1.30 per bushel.

There are reported to be 50 automobiles owned in and around Chestertown. At an average of $1,200 a piece they represent a mony value of $60,000.

The State Councillor and her staff, of Baltimore, will visit Chestertown Council No. 58 Daughters of America, Monday evening, July 1st. A full attendance is requested.

Mr. P. A. M. Brooks, Jr., the new owner of Topping's Radcliffe Mills, will assume charge of the property about the middle of July. Success to you, friend Medford.

Mr. J. F. Thompson, agent, has delivered to Mr. Joseph Weer, of Kennedyville, this week a 1912 model five passenger Ford touring car. Mr. Thompson delivered Dr. W. O. Selby the same model last week.

County Treasurer Wm. J. Tarbutton sold at tax sale on Tuesday afternoon the Samuel Johnson property in Broad Neck, containing six acres and advertised in the TRANSCRIPT to Mr. Herbert Fletcher for $20.

Centreville had the good fortune to see a real airship last week. A government aviator flew from Annapolis to Centreville, a distance of 30 miles in 31 minutes. He landed at Centreville long enough to give the residents a good look at the flyer.

Mr. J. F. Thompson has sold his big 16 passenger car to Mr. McKenney, of Cecil county, who will use it on the stage route between Elkton and Chesapeake City. The big car was too heavy for our good road to Tolchester and Mr. Thompson will use two smaller cars for his passenger route.

The Nathaniel Comegys farm, situated near Black's and containing 150 acres of fine land, was sold at public sale by Hope H. Barroll, trustee, on Saturday to Mr. L. L. Smith for $9450. Mr. Smith paid cash for the farm and immediately rented it to Mr. John Duyer, of Worton, for next year. Mr. Smith has a good farm and a first-class tenant in Mr. Duyer.

James W. Kirby, proprietor of the Chestertown Marble Works, has on hand a large stock of fine designs for monuments, tombs, etc., from which persons desiring to mark the last resting place of their departed loved ones can make a selection.

The suffrage parade, the most spectacular feature of convention week, announced to take place Thursday evening, was postponed until 7 o'clock Friday evening. "The suffragits know enough to come in out of the rain" was the reason given. Fully 40,000 persons had gathered along the route before 7 o'clock Thursday evening to witness the parade.

We are in receipt of a copy of The Caroline Sun's Historical and Industrial Edition. The edition is a study of the history and early days of the thriving town of Ridgely, interestingly told and appropriately illustrated. The edition is a credit to the Sun, and in line with the progressive spirit of that enterprising section of the good old Eastern Sho'.

Mr. Frank Jarman who is playing ball with the Chilocothe team of the Ohio State League, pitched a fine game the other day allowing only four hits, and using his head like a veteran in tight places. The fans are tickled sick with Frank, and he is making good with the crowds. Mr. Thomas Kibler, of the same team, who sprained his ankle some time ago got back into the game last week.

Mr. P. A. M. Brooks took a party of friends to Baltimore to the National Convention in his launch on Tuesday. From there they went to Cambridge to witness the yacht races. Those in the party were P. A. M. Brooks and son, Medford, Thos. G. Wroth, Charles W. Kibler, Dr. G. Allen Jarman, Jack Jester and John Carroll. "Capt." Frank Duyer and son, Jack Duyer, also made the trip in their pleasure boat.

Misses Sallie and Ella Wilkins will remove to Philadelphia in August, where they will make their future home with their brother-in-law, Mr. Wilbur F. Simpers and family. The many friends of these two estimable ladies will regret to see them leave Chestertown. They have lived on Spring avenue for many years, and it will be quite unnatural not to see them as we pass by. Mr. Fred Hirons has rented the house for the balance of this year and next.

Mr. Fred Estes, pullman conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, brought a distinguished delegation to the Baltimore Convention in a special train from Missouri. Mr. Estes has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Walter U. Lusby and his brothers, Deputy Treasurer Ollie Estes and Mr. James Estes, during the week here. Mr. Estes tells an amusing incident in connection with his trip. He says the papers were full of the trip, telling about how many stops were made, and how many speeches the Governor of the state made along the route etc. Mr. Estes says there is not a word of truth in these reports, as not a stop was made, nor a speech made—simply something "put in" the papers to "fill up."

Democratic Convention.

The Great Democratic National Convention began in Baltimore on Tuesday at noon. But for days previous to that the city was thronged with delegates, and politicians, high and low, little and big, all getting a line on things and few if any learning the real secrets in the minds and hearts of the big manipulators of conventions. Mr. Bryan reached town on Sunday, and there was a stir which shook the city from centre to circumference. He immediately began a fight to prevent the election of Judge Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman of the convention. Mr. Bryan's opposition to Judge Parker was due to the fact that he believed Judge Parker to be too closely in touch with the great money interests of the country, and because the judge is believed to be a conservative. Mr. Bryan contended for the election of a Progressive as he believed it essential for the Democrats to nominate a progressive candidate, and it would create a most unfavorable impression to have a conservative sound the keynote of a progressive convention. The national committee elected Judge Parker by 31 to 20 for Ollie James. Mr. Bryan carried his fight to the floor of the convention and nominated Senator Kern, of Indiana, for temporary chairman. Senator Kern for personal reasons declined to run, and substituted Mr. Bryan's name.

The roll call showed 579 votes for Judge Parker to 510 for Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan was defeated but not routed by any means, and his defeat showed conclusively that no man be nominated for president without his influence. Bryan holds the key to the situation. Judge Parker delivered a long speech which was not concluded at the afternoon session. It was carried over until evening. Mr. Bryan refused to draw the party platform, stating that the candidate nominated should write his own platform. This was agreed to, and things have been going along smoothly. Maryland's delegation voted as follows on the temporary chairman:

For Parker—Senators John Walter Smith, Isador Rayner, Mayor Preston; Congressmen J. F. C. Talbott, J. Harry Covington; Messrs. Joshua W. Miles, John J. Mahon, Arthur P. Gorman, Jasper N. Willison, Emerson C. Harrington, Thomas J. Keating, Frank A. Furst, Charles H. Dickey, Guy W. Steele, S. Davies Warfield, William F. O'Conner, Robert J. Padgett, Alonzo L. Miles, Max Ways, Daniel J. Loden, John S. Kelly, Dr. George Wells, Aquilla T. Robinson, Dr. Walter B. Dent, Edward M. Hammond, J. Augustine Mason, Emory C. Coblentz, Gilmor S. Hamill, Arthur Peter.

For Bryan—Emerson R. Crothers, John S. Young, S. S. Field.

Congressman Covington was elected chairman of the committee on rules. Senators Gore and Rayner made two wonderful speeches on Wednesday morning. The demonstration which followed for Governor Wilson lasted fully twenty minutes, and created the greatest enthusiasm for the New Jersey Governor. It has been the greatest week in the history of Baltimore city, and there has been the wildest enthusiasm.

THE GRIM REAPER.

MR. J. FRANK LEGG.

Mr. J. Frank Legg died suddenly Sunday night, June 15th, about 8 o'clock of heart trouble at his home in Stevensville aged 58 years. He had had an attack of the disease the previous Sunday but was feeling fine last Sunday and went driving. The storm caused him to hurry home and the excitement brought on the fatal attack. Upon reaching his home he walked upon the porch and sat in a rocking chair when he died. Mr. Legg was a farmer but last year moved to Stevensville. He never lost interest however, in agricultural pursuits for he had planted 40 acres in tomatoes for the cannery this year. He is survived by a widow who was Miss Julia Tolson and one brother, Mr. E. C. Legg, of Baltimore. Mrs. S. E. Kirby and brother, Mr. Chas. Cockey made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Legg, for many years. Funeral services were held at Stevensville M. E. Church the following Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock and interment followed in Stevensville cemetery. The deceased was formerly a resident of this county, having tenanted the Hubbard farm near Morgan Creek bridge for several years. He was a gentleman of the highest integrity and christian character, and had a host of friends in the town and county who are shocked to learn of his sudden death.

MISS CHARLOTTE LOUISE CRISFIELD.

Miss Charlotte Louise Crisfield, one of the best known and most highly esteemed ladies of Princess Anne, died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, last Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Crisfield had been at the hospital for several weeks for surgical treatment. The operation which at first appeared successful, was followed by complications which resulted in her death. The remains were taken to Princess Anne early Monday morning and the funeral took place Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Manokin Presbyterian Church. The deceased was a sister of Judge Henry Page, and a relative of Judge James Alfred Pearce, of this town.

ADA NOLAND.

Miss Ada Noland died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Oliver Stoops, on High street, Chestertown, at 8.30 Thursday morning of Brights disease, in the 20th year of her age. She is survived by her father, Mr. Joseph B. Noland, of Sandy Bottom, and two sisters, Mrs. Oliver Stoops, of Chestertown, and Mrs. Price Stoops, of Lynch Station, also two brothers, Raymond T. and Joseph Noland, of New York. She has been a great sufferer for the past two years, but bore her suffering with patience. She had the kind and loving attention of her sisters and friends and her physician, Dr. H. G. Simpers. Funeral this afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers will be: John E. Barnes, Clarence Willis, Edgar Clarke, Eli Elliott, Merrick Horn. Undertaker, J. E. Ferguson.

BENJAMIN WHEELER.

Mr. Benjamin Wheeler, of Betterton, died very suddenly at his home in Betterton of acute indigestion Wednesday evening, age 77 years. He leaves one son, William Wheeler, and four daughters. Funeral this (Saturday) morning at 11 o'clock at his late residence, Rev. F. X. Moore officiating. Interment at Still Pond cemetery. Wm. H. Krusen, undertaker in charge.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

CONNELLY—DEMPSEY.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude E. Dempsey, of Galena, and Rev. Olie H. Connelly, pastor of Piney Neck M. E. Church, was performed Thursday, June 27th, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Theodore Dempsey. The ring ceremony was performed by Rev. T. C. Smoot, of Stevensville, Kent Island, assisted by Rev. R. H. Lewis. Promptly at one-thirty o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by Miss May Lavelle Dempsey, the ten-year-old niece of the bride, the wedding party entered the room. The order of procedure was as follows: Ushers, T. Kemp Bordley, of Chestertown, and Wm. C. Dempsey, brother of the bride; flower girls, Misses Nellie and Marian Dempsey, carrying baskets of sweet peas; maid of honor, Miss Carrie M. Dempsey, sister of the bride, gowned in white embroidery over pink and carrying pink rose buds; the bride was gowned in white crepe-de-chine with fringe and pearl trimming and carrying bride roses, accompanied by the groom, dressed in conventional black.

The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being green and white. While the marriage rites were being solemnized, the bridal party stood under a large arch from which was suspended a floral bell. Festoons of daisies and asparagus and bouquets of cut flowers completed the decoration. After the reception the happy couple left in an auto for Piney Neck, where the many friends of the groom gave a large reception. The wedding party and many of the friends and relatives went on the evening train to Chestertown, where they were met by a Piney Neck launch, and attended the reception there in the evening.

Among the out of town guests were: Rev. T. C. Smoot, Mrs. Hattie Dempsey, Mrs. Charles McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wirt, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Duhamell, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Duhumell, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Duhamell, Mrs. Guy Biddle, Mrs. S. L. Emerson, Mrs. Mary Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis King, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosin, Mrs. Charles Jones and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith, Miss Helen Stradley, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and family, Mr. L. P. Atwell and family, Mrs. J. F. Ernest, Mrs. Andrew Reynolds, Mrs. G. W. McWhorter, Mrs. Robert Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kelley.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. We wish them much happiness.

Grange Notes.

Still Pond Grange is having a series of picnic meetings once a month now during the summer. The first one was held on the beautiful lawn of our Worthy Master, Rev. S. S. Hepburn. The business meeting at 2.30 followed by an informal program, and then a basket supper was spread. A very good crowd was present, and all voted our Worthy Master and wife were ideal hosts. These meetings are semi-public, and grangers and friends are invited to attend. The next will be on Wednesday, July 10, 2.30 P. M., at A. L. Harris'.
