THE LADIES' STORE. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

H. F. JEFFERSON & BRO.,

OPPOSITE STAM'S HALL.

THE ONE HOUR EARLIER CLOSING OF OUR STORE is meeting with success generally. Our sales ladies are jubilant, our customers favor this humane treatment of our clerks, and we ourselves, are well-pleased with the results. These mornings afford excellent opportunities for shopping, but we will be pleased to attend to your wants anytime from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

DRESS LINENS!

We are showing great values in all kinds of Dress Linens. They include the real light weight, medium and coarse Linens in all colors. Our Blue and Plain White Heavy Linens, 48 in. wide, at 75c per yard are great favorites with the well-dressed woman. 2¼ yds. make a skirt or 3½ yds. make a whole dress. Ask to see these Linens.

Under this head we again call your attention to our 15c Killarney Linen. It looks like linen the more it is washed. None genuine unless "Killarney" is written on the selvage. We have the sole agency for Kent county for this popular goods. 15c per yard.

SPECIAL SALE OF CORSETS!

On Saturday, June 1st, we will put on our $1.50 Special Corset at $1.00 each. The large W. B. Corset Co. made us this Corset, and you will know it in that our name appears on the inside of Corset. It has drawing strings at top, strong, wide garters, low bust and long skirt, and in every way it is a good up-to-date Corset. In order to get a price on this Corset, we had to buy 25 dozen or 300 pairs, hence, we have plenty to supply you. If it is inconvenient to visit the store, 'phone or write to-day from any part of the county, and we will save you a pair. $1.50 Corsets for $1.00.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Rock Hall, Md.

DEAR SIRS—Can you tell us in Rock Hall why it is such an excellent man as Capt. Lum Ashley was turned down for the Oyster Police Boat? It has been generally conceded here he is the best captain we have had in the last twenty years. What was the cause of the opposition to him? His friends and he were positively promised this place, and somebody has lied to us. Can you tell us who it is?

FIFTH DISTRICT OYSTERMAN.

June 25th, 1912.

We have understood that Capt. Ashley refused to appoint Capt. Hyland mate on the boat in place of Mr. Akers at the command of the Organization leader, and Mr. Akers was made captain in order to provide a place for Capt. Tom Hyland, who for years was captain of the police boat. And so Capt. Ashley was turned down.—EDS.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I read as well as see some wonderful things in this progressive time, quite amusing as well as surely ridiculous and more or less disgusting to fair-minded folk, wives, especially, who are honest, industrious, faithful and true women. It was quite laughable to read in a Cleveland paper an article styled, "Don'ts for Wives." The writer must surely be opposed to woman suffragists. Now, I call attention to some "Don'ts for Men," when hundreds of others might be added.

HUSBANDS DON'TS.

Men, don't marry for money, be sure to love a little, don't marry for convenience, or position, or to have a drudge in the kitchen, or nursery either, or to have a sewing girl to patch and darn always. Don't keep the house in disorder, upset always to disgrace her who you may have as wifely housekeeper. Don't retail to your family false charges of short comings or to claim extravagant doings against the wife. Don't be so selfish as to spend every cent on self. Keep sweet by kindness, love, attention. Don't put up temper in light of domicile, fearing wife might have perplexities to annoy her, then have a family quarrel, he putting wife out in many words as well as acts. Can it be possible that such a being does exist? Yes, truly, one does not have to go out of the smoke of chimneys to find such. Don't be an angel before marriage, then a stingy mean demon, a disgrace to his sex as well as gentlemen, and break the bond that the dear Lord forbids any man to put asunder. There are more unreliable husbands in any class of life than wives it would seem. Don't be a dirty mean, lazy nobody, for the good of the city, town or country you may reside in. Wives need love, respect, confidence and devotion to fill out their duties, it surely appears. Another chapter may come in later. Don't swear, nag or fault find continually. Let up a little.
