MR. BRYAN is one man in this day and generation who has demonstrated by his courage and fighting qualities that money can't buy everything.

SAMUEL GOMPERS, head of the American Federation of Labor, has declared in the strongest terms in favor of the election of Gov. Woodrow Wilson for President.

A MEMBER of Tammany Hall, New York, has named his new-born babe in honor of Gov. Woodrow Wilson. Any doubt about the real sentiment in Tammany Hall being for Woodrow Wilson?

THE Democratic donkey, with Wilson in the saddle, looks "fit" for the race of his life, while the Republican elephant looks like he needs the attention of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

IT has been suggested to us that the base drum and cymbals on the Wilson band wagon be offered to the Reactionary Woodrow Wilson club formed in Chestertown last Monday evening. These instruments usually occupy the rear of the band wagon.

A SOUVENIR postal from Mr. R. S. Crew, a graduate of Washington College, who is engaged in road building near Savannah, Ga., says, "We are building very good roads by use of convict labor. Very glad to see that you are advocating same for dear old Kent."

EVEN Nugent and Smith of the New Jersey Old Guard, have sought pardon of Gov. Wilson and found it. They are coming from all quarters of the globe, and it is thought that the band wagon will have to be greatly enlarged in order to hold all those who want to get aboard before the band begins to play—"The Jersey skeeter, he can sting."

EX-MAYOR R. K. Vanneman, cashier of the First National Bank of Havre de Grace and mayor of that city for six successive terms, died at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, on Monday morning of a complication of diseases. The deceased was well-known in State banking circles and in this town.

POOR old Republican party. Split to pieces by its discreditable action at the Chicago convention, and facing sure defeat in the November election, are putting forth efforts all over the country to induce Taft and Roosevelt to withdraw and agree upon a compromise candidate. Will they succeed? Ask Teddy.

THE Reactionaries are late in organizing Woodrow Wilson clubs, as the Progressives had honeycombed the county with Wilson clubs long before his nomination for President. But it is better late than never. The Progressives, however, will be glad to have the Reactionaries' co-operation in their efforts to give the Democratic ticket a sweeping majority in November.

GOV. GOLDSBOROUGH and National Committeeman Wm. P. Jackson have played smash with the Republican party in Maryland. Both of these gentlemen played the Taft end of the game at Chicago, when their State was pledged to Roosevelt, and when the day of reckoning comes, Messrs. Goldsborough and Jackson will hear from the rank and file of their party.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S "Bull Moose" party will be a dead issue before it gets a chance to organize Aug. 15th. The nomination of Governor Wilson has made a third party not only useless but impossible of formation. Gov. Wilson is progressive enough for Col. Roosevelt and his friends, and he is broad enough in his political views to catch many of the malecontents. It's Wilson—that's all.

CHAIRMAN Henry McCullough, of the last Republican convention, and Gov. Goldsborough held a conference this week looking to the reassembling of the State Convention for the purpose of selecting Taft electors to go on the ticket in place of those who were elected by the last convention and who are favorable to Col. Roosevelt. Isn't the Republican mixup a mess? No use; the steam roller is again at work, and election supervisors will not let Roosevelt electors go on the ticket.

THE TRANSCRIPT wants every district leader in Kent county, it makes no difference who you are, whether you praise the TRANSCRIPT or whether you "cuss" it, to get busy and see what a rousing majority you can give the Democratic ticket in November. It makes no difference whether you organize a Woodrow Wilson club or not. What Gov. Wilson wants you to do is to get busy and not only prepare to vote yourself, but to prepare as many others to vote the Democratic ticket in November as you possibly can. That is the only way to win a big victory.

FROM Maine to Georgia and from ocean to ocean the prediction is being made that Gov. Wilson will sweep the country in November. The nomination of Wilson and Marshall has met with the most enthusiastic approbation. Al factions of the Democratic party are harmoniously united in an effort to elect the ticket, and we do not believe that President Taft will carry a single State in the Union. We do not believe the Republicans believe so, either, but, poor fellows, with a house divided against itself, they are putting up a big bluff, and are trying to keep the props from falling from under the G. O. P.

GOV. WILSON will be at the tiller in his campaign for President, and Mr. Walter McCombs, who managed the Governor's campaign so adroitly for nomination, will be chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and have charge of the campaign. Gov. Wilson will personally supervise the receipt of campaign funds.

JUST as soon as the farmer gets ready to ship his wheat to market down goes the price below one dollar. Long before wheat was ripe the quotations for July and August delivery were $1.08 to $1.15 per bushel. This week in July the best that is offered is 97 cents per bushel. Now let the farmer be compelled to buy his flour from the flour manufacturers who are protected by the Republican party's trusts, and he pays $6.50 per barrel for it, when he can only get 97 cents a bushel for his wheat. And this is what the Republican advocates call PROSPERITY.

THOMAS TAGGART, former Democratic National Committeeman from Indiana admitted before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections in Washington on Tuesday that Thomas F. Ryan and August Belmont had financed the Parker campaign in 1904. Was Mr. Bryan right in his fight against these money kings to control the recent Democratic Convention in Baltimore? And did not Champ Clark and all his supporters make a serious blunder in forcing the election of Judge Parker upon a progressive convention? Mr. Bryan's action has saved the Democratic party from another defeat by breaking the power of the predatory interests over the Democratic nominee.

IT IS very nice in the Chestertown Reactionaries to organize a Woodrow Wilson Club in Chestertown. It shows a disposition for the first time in many months to "pitch in" with the Progressives and help give a rousing majority for Governor Wilson. That's the right spirit. If the Reactionaries' choice for president, Speaker Champ Clark, had won the nomination, the friends of Gov. Wilson in Kent, who fought his campaign here from first to last, would have given Mr. Clark their most hearty support, and now that Gov. Wilson is the nominee, we gladly accept the support and co-operation of the "Reactionary" Woodrow Wilson Club with the Progressive Woodrow Wilson Club in giving the Democratic ticket an overwhelming majority in this county next fall. It can be done if the Reactionaries will help.

THE chief issue in this campaign is the HIGH COST OF LIVING, and when you learn the cause of the high cost of living you will find that it is the PROTECTIVE TARIFF. The Beef Trust controls the price of beef. How much more does the farmer get for his beef on the hoof now than he got four or five years ago? The Leather Trust controls the price of leather. How much more do our dealers get for hides now than they did four years ago? Every commodity classed as a necessity of life is controlled by a trust protected by a high protective tariff wall. This is the issue the people are compelled to face in this campaign, and if they want a remedy for it they should vote the Democratic ticket, which stands for the regulation of the trusts by proper legislation and for a tariff for revenue only. This country is ripe for a change in administration. The Republican party has had control of the government so long that it has become drunk with power, and the people have been made to suffer to an alarming and an unnecessary degree. The people must come into possession of their rights, and they can only do so by a change in the management of our government. The Republican party has been in control of the affairs of government since 1896, and instead of the condition of our people becoming better as the great resources of this splendid country would justify, these resources which constitute the necessities of life are controlled by a few favored individuals who are protected by the laws of a government which is supposed to be of the people, for the people and by the people. The Republican party has destroyed the fundamental principle of our government in the enforcement of its theory of protection, and it is high time for the people to get what is their due. And Woodrow Wilson will give it to them.

THE GRIM REAPER.

REV. W. S. PHILLIPS.

Rev. W. S. Phillips died Wednesday morning in Newark, N. J., after a lingering illness from a complication of diseases. Dr. Phillips was a well-known member of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and had a wide circle of friends in Maryland. At the time of his death he was pastor of First Methodist Protestant Church of Newark. Before going to New Jersey he held the pastorate of Eutaw Methodist Protestant Church, in Baltimore, and was for a long time pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church of Salisbury, Md. He was the secretary of the Maryland Conference and a representative to the General Conference held in Baltimore in May. Dr. Phillips was also a trustee of Western Maryland College. The body was taken to Salisbury yesterday for interment.

MR. WALTER C. SKINNER.

Mr. Walter C. Skinner, a farmer residing on the Boyd farm in Broad Neck, died at his home Monday afternoon of tuberculosis, aged 35 years. He leaves a widow, who was formerly a Miss Richardson, and five small children. The deceased was a native of Queen Annes county and came to Kent about three years ago. His remains were taken to Wye Mills where funeral services were held, and interment made at Hillsboro. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of arrangements.

CHURCH WORK.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, July 14th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, subject: "The Carpenter's Son;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath school and pastor's Bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service followed by brief sermon by the pastor, subject: "Safety of the Young Woman." This is the second in the series of twilight sermons. Last Sunday evening, notwithstanding the heat, a good audience was present to hear the pastor's discourse on "The Safety of the Young Man." Don't miss any of the services. The whole service is but one hour—from 7 to 8.

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminster at 10.30 A. M., Grace at 3 P. M., Worton at 7.45 P. M.. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10 A. M. at Worton.

At the communion service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday morning, Dr. Graham, the pastor, received four young ladies into church. At the Sunday school missionary service $20 were contributed by the classes. And at the twilight service a patriotic service was enjoyed. Mr. Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., delivered a splendid address upon the subject, "The American Patriot of To-day," and a number of patriotic selections were sung by the choir and large audience.

The members of Bethel A. M. E. Church have laid the foundation of a new church building on a lot which they recently purchased of Mr. Vernon Barnett, on College avenue. When the new edifice is completed, the old church, which has stood for years on the corner of Calvert and Kent streets, will be removed and the lot disposed of. This is a commendable move on the part of this congregation, and the new church will be an ornament to that section of the town.

Services for Kennedyville M. P. Church for next Sunday, July 14th—9.30 A. M., Sunday school; 10.30, sermon by the pastor, a second discourse in the interest of the Sabbath Day Observance. In case the weather be very warm no service in the evening. Definite announcement made in the morning service. Let there be a full attendance at the Sunday school and morning service while the mind is more active and the heart more receptive for the great truths of the gospel.

Rev. W. W. White, of Sassafras, will conduct religious services to-morrow as follows: Sassafras, preaching 10.30 A. M.; Massey, preaching 3 P. M.; Golt's, preaching 8 P. M.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor.—Preaching at 10.30 A. M., Sunday school at 2.30 P. M., and Twilight service at 6.30 P. M. Short sermon and good music. Come worship with us.

Christ M. P. Sunday school enjoyed the day on Wednesday picnicing at Love Point. They were accorded splendid treatment by the management, and Mrs. Legg, the proprietress of the pretty hotel, served splendid meals. About 375 went on the trip. Emmanuel P. E. Sunday school went to Tolchester the same day and had a most enjoyable time. The M. E. Sunday school will go to Love Point on Wednesday next, July 17th.

Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel P. E. Church, was taken suddenly ill in church last Sunday morning after administering communion, and was hurried to his home in an automobile. He received medical attention and recovered sufficiently to conduct the services at night. He was overcome by the heat.

The Maryland Sunday School Association will hold a convention at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church tomorrow (Sunday). Several speakers from Baltimore and from neighboring churches will be present at the morning, afternoon and evening services. The Sunday schools of the district are invited to bring lunch and spend the day.

Rev. Mr. Dupuy who conducted the services over the remains of the late Walter Skinner, of Broad Neck, related his experience to us this week. The remains were taken to Beck's wharf where they were shipped to Centreville. At Centreville teams were in waiting and the cortege proceeded to Wye Mills where at 12 o'clock funeral services were held. From there the remains were taken to Hillsboro, Caroline county, for interment. Mr. Dupuy returned on Wednesday night reaching the Chesapeake parsonage at eleven o'clock. Mr. C. L. Dodd was the funeral director.
