Death of Mr. Ignatius Diggs and some time after the Death of both the Revd Mr Diggs and Mrs Lee, and that ~~believe it was of~~ no consequence ~~after~~ the death of Mrs Lee, she heard it.

4th Int. Have you any knowledge of the manner in which the said Ignatius Diggs intended the property left by him to his Grand Son Ignatius Diggs Lee, should go, in the Event of his the said Ignatius Diggs Lee's death? and why he left it to the care of his brother the Revd Mr Diggs? and why he did not leave it to his daughter?

Ans. She hath no other knowledge of the motives that induced Mr Diggs to leave the property intended for his Grandson away from his daughter, except that he wished to secure it to his Grand children ~~and that she does~~ not know why he did not leave it to his daughter, nor why he left it to the care of his brother except for the above reasons, and the general tenor of his Conversations in which he repeatedly said he wanted not leave the said property, so that Mr. Lee could use or dispose of it.

5th Int. Do you know of any negroes other than those mentioned in the will — or sums of money which have been given by said Ignatius Diggs to the said Thomas Sim Lee or to his wife? upon what terms? and for what purpose?

Ans. To the best of her recollection Mr. Diggs gave Mr. & Mrs. Lee fifty negroes to be chosen out of his Mr. Diggs's negroes at Mellwood by Mr. Lee — when he Mr. Lee moved up to Redwood. That Mr. Diggs gave to Mr. & Mrs. Lee furniture which he Mr. Diggs imported for them, and clothing for his Mr. Lee's family, as well as for his servants, whilst Mr. & Mrs. Lee lived at Selby Landing in this County — that she knows of no other sums of money given by Mr. Diggs to Mr. & Mrs. Lee than those mentioned in the will of Mr. Diggs — except the money advanced to purchase land near George Town for Mr. & Mrs. Lee as before stated —

6th Int. Have you any further knowledge respecting any part of the property which was given by the said Ignatius Diggs to his Grand Son Ignatius Diggs Lee? or which was advanced to said Thomas Sim Lee or to his wife? its amount & kind?

Ans. She understood, and to the best of her knowledge there were One hundred and thirty negroes, left by Ignatius Diggs Lee besides crops, stocks of cattle &c. on the Eastern Shore left to him in Montgomery & Prince George's Counties, and the bonds a receipt for which she now furnishes, as left amongst the papers of the Revd Mr. Thomas Diggs — and that to the best of her knowledge, the said negroes and property were delivered up to Thomas Sim Lee by the said Revd Mr. Diggs upon the death of the said Ignatius Diggs Lee.

7th Int. Who administered upon the Estate of Ignatius Diggs?

Ans. I was appointed his Executrix by his last will, and duly administered thereon —
