SENATOR SMITH TO RETIRE AND COVINGTON RISE.

Harrington to go to Lower Chamber.

Following closely upon the heels of Senator John Walter Smith's vote for Lorimer in the United States Senate, comes this interesting rumor clipped from the Evening Sun on Monday:

"Interest to-day was lent to desultory Democratic gossip by the appearance of a report that United States Senator John Walter Smith might decline re-election to his seat in the Federal senior chamber, and that Congressman J. Harry Covington would be promoted from the House. In this event, continued the gossip, State Comptroller Emerson C. Harrington would be a candidate for Mr. Covington's present place.

"For sometime past report has had it that Senator Smith was not ultra-ambitious to retain his toga, but would be willing to pass it on to some suitable successor, and this intimation has become a settled belief in some minds. And no one, it is believed, could be more acceptable to him as his successor than Mr. Covington, his right-hand man."

In our judgment it would be very wise for Senator Smith to retire to private life, though he must carry to his solitude the stigma which his vote for Lorimor and his vote for a protective tariff on lumber, in the sale of which commodity he is very largely interested, has cast upon him. Public opinion is beginning to crystalize strongly against Senator Smith, but in making up his mind to lay aside the senatorial toga, let us remind him that it would not be wise for him to try and arrest with a Lorimer—Lumber Tariff Lasso a Progressive Democratic Donkey.

PROHIBITIONISTS SELECT A TICKET.

Chafin and Watkins, the Standard Bearers of 1908, Will Lead the 1912 Campaign.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 13.—The Prohibition National Convention concluded its labors last night with the nomination of the party standard bearers of four years ago—Eugene W. Chafin, of Arizona, for President, and Aaron S. Watkins, of Ohio, for Vice-President. In each case the nomination was made by acclamation after a single ballot had indicated the preference of the delegates. Four candidates for President were placed in nomination against Mr. Chafin. They were: F. W. Emerson, of California; Finley C. Hendrickson, of Maryland; S. Watkins, of Ohio, and Andrew Jackson Houston, of Texas. Each in turn withdrew his name after the first ballot, Mr. Houston, creating enthusiasm by the statement that he would rather receive the lowest vote in the Prohibition convention than the highest in either the Democratic or Republican conventions. The leading candidates against Mr. Watkins for Vice-President were—Mr. Emerson, of California, and George E. Stockwell, of New York. Both of the party candidates were called to the platform and made brief speeches. Mr. Chafin said he regarded the nomination as the greatest political honor bestowed upon any man this year. He thanked the convention for his second nomination and promised not to stand for a "third term."

Previous to and for a short while after the nomination of the candidates efforts were made to induce the convention the change the name of the party. Suggestions that the party had outgrown its name, which have been discussed informally since the gathering here of the delegates, brought a definite proposal from Rev. S. H. Taft, of California, that the convention adopt the name "Conservation party." Other names suggested by delegates were—"Progressive party" and "Liberal party." There was so much opposition to the suggestions that they all went by default.

A proposal that instead of each State having two representatives on the national committee, the representation be according to the size of the Prohibition vote, one member for each 5,000 votes, aroused considerable opposition. The matter was referred to the new national committee for settlement.

Live Eel in Congregation.

The congregation of Bethesda colored church, near Concord, Del., was thrown into a panic Sunday afternoon, by some one turning a live eel loose in the congregation during the morning preaching service. The church was well filled and the preacher was waxing eloquent, when the eel, in its efforts to get back again to its natural element, struck an old colored woman on the ankle.

One glimpse of the eel was enough. Seizing her skirts with both hands she immediately mounted a pew and began screeching lustily, in the meantime the eel disappeard from view, but was located a short distance away by some youngsters, who caught it and started to show the crowd the cause for the excitement. Their efforts only added to the confusion, as the crowd, seeing what looked like a snake, made a break for the door, and several women were knocked down and trampled in the rush.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains often come from weak kidneys.

'Twould save much needless woe.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Read what a Chestertown citizen says:

Mrs. A. A. Sparks, High St., Chestertown, Md., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have given highly satisfactory results. I strongly recommend this remedy."

Mrs. Sparks, is only one of many Chestertown people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills.
