Cotton Corduroy

Pique, with its new name, "Cotton Corduroy," is in much favor with all classes. We keep the different grades, so as to suit the pocketbooks of all. Whether you buy our 18c, 25c, 40c or 50c grade, you are in style just the same.

FLAXONS

This fabric stands foremost among this summer's washable goods. We have beautiful patterns in striped, checked and fancy at 20c per yard, and plain white at 18c and 25c.

LINENS

Your wardrobe is not complete without a suit or dress made from the better kind of colored Linen which we have in stock for your benefit. Prices—18c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 50c and 75c per yard.

Lawns Reduced

We have made a generous reduction in all Lawns. This means you must come early to get the choicest patterns. Some new patterns were added to our line this week. You cannot find a larger assortment outside the city, and we have heard many comments upon the many attractive and dainty patterns. See for yourself and reap the benefit.

We started out to mention in this column nothing but the "NEW THINGS," but some of the old things are always new. For instance, our J&K Shoes, style leaders in women's footwear, can always be placed in the new column. Strawbridge & Clothier's Humidor Linens belong to the same class.

At any rate, our aim has been to place in every department of this store the best of its kind to be procured.

We invite you to inspect all lines.

Our town was shocked on Saturday morning last to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Herman Hendrix. She had been in poor health for a number of years, though never confined to her bed. Her husband and friends had persuaded her to go to the sanitorium in Attleboro, Mass., where her daughter, Miss Emma, was a nurse, hoping that a course of treatment would prove beneficial, and she was planning to start in a few days. Mrs. Hendrix awoke in the morning feeling as well as usual, but in a few minutes complained of a smothering sensation. Her husband assisted her down stairs where it was cooler and called friends to his assistance, but before they could reach him, his wife passed away about 4.30 A. M. She was a member of the S. D. A. Church, of this town; a faithful wife and mother, and always ready to lend a helping hand to others. The funeral service was held at her late home on Monday at 11 A. M., conducted by Mr. Whaley, elder of the S. D. A. Church, of Church Hill. The pall-bearers were; Messrs. Eldridge and Leonard Wilson, W. T. Mallalieu, Samuel Merchant, J. T. Power and Elmer Gordon. His family has the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Benton is survived by his widow, who was Miss Annie Bamberger, of Queen Annes county, and one son, Willie. Funeral services were held at his late home at 2 P. M. on Thursday last conducted by Rev. H. S. Thompson, pastor of Asbury M.E. Church of which Mr. Benton was a member. Interment in Millington cemetery. J. L. Smith was the undertaker in charge.
