Dear Sir

I have taken the liberty to forward by an address a printed copy of Mr Frisby's memorial which was on the 16th inst ~~referred~~ referred to the Committee of claims, the subject of this petition is the same to which there was an allusion in the last conversation which I had the pleasure to hold with you — May I ask the favor of you to examine the petition with the accompanying documents I am bound for they support the facts set forth in the petition — My friend Mr McKim will be able to give such additional information as you may require in relation to this subject — I must beg pardon for intruding on your attention in the mode now adopted — I trust that you will excuse it, when I state — that the application is made, on the person to whom the concerns of the City Bank has been entrusted —

I am with great respect
Your very obt Servant —

J B Morris

To the Honble
