MONDAY, JULY 29—Sale of Harry H. Legg's valuable personalty on the Pearce farm, near town.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31—Thomas Quigley's large public sale of valuable personalty on the Janvier farm, near Locust Grove.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 1—Big sale of valuable stock and farm implements on the William H. Spry farm, near Sassafras. Fine lot of horses, cattle and farm implements.

SATURDAY AUGUST 3rd.—Public auction of the harness and store goods of the late John F. Howard, on Court street by Hope H. Barroll executor.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7—Samuel G. Caldwell will have a large public sale of about 100 head of horses, mules and colts on his farm, near Galena.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8—Sale of the large and valuable personalty of the late W. G. Skirven, on Tulip Forest farm, near Fairlee. Mr. Lewin U. Skirven, as agent, has due authority to make this sale, having been authorized by the widow of the deceased, Mrs. M. E. Skirven, in whose name all this property is recorded, to act as her agent. The sale will posstively take place, and all goods sold as advertised.

MONDAY AUGUST 12th.—Sale of William T. Crow's desirable personalty on the Bosee farm in Morgnec.

MONDAY AUGUST 12th.—Sale of fine personalty of Max Price on "the Gunneries farm" near Still Pond.

TUESDAY AUGUST 20th.—Sale of the fine John P. Cochran farm, near Galena, by Hope H. Barroll, assignee.

Approaching Marriage.—Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Maddox Noble announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elsie Rosalie Noble, to Mr. William Robert Huey, book-keeper in the Third National Bank of Chestertown, to take place in Bethel Methodist Episcopal Church, near Federalsburg, Maryland, August 1st, 1912, at twelve o'clock noon. No cards issued.

To Teach at Polytechnic.—Professor Harry P. Porter, a graduate of Washington College, and who received the degree of A. M. from the college at the last commencement, has been appointed professor of English at the Polytechnic Institute, Baltimore, at a salary of $1500 a year. Prof. Porter is one of the best known educators in the State having been principal of the Belair High School for a number of years. He was an applicant for the principalship of the Chestertown High School.

Finds it Pays to Use Transcript.—Mr. P. M. Brooks, proprietor of Radcliffe Mills, stopped in on Tuesday morning to tell us that it pays to advertise in the TRANSCRIPT. He said the papers reached Massey on Saturday morning about nine o'clock and by return mail he had an order for enough feed to pay for the cost of his advertisement for one year. He says he has found the patronage of the TRANSCRIPT valuable in another direction also. Well, whenever you advertise good goods like Mr. Brooks does in a good paper like the TRANSCRIPT, you are bound to get good results.

A Fine Home.—Messrs. Needles Bros., the prominent painters and paper hangers of this town, have just finished, in their artistic manner, papering the fine home of Capt. George E. Albee, at Gratitude. Capt. Albee is a retired army officer, and some years ago married Miss Freddie Strong. The spacious bed room has been finished in designs and colors, imitative of the army calvary, artillery and infantry, while the captain's "den" is done in Antique Bronze to show the relics of the frontier and souvenirs of the Civil War. The entire house has been transformed into a thing of beauty by the artistic brush and skill of the Messrs. Needles, and the home is one of the prettiest in that section of the county.

Jump Farm Sold.—Mr. L. L. Smith, who recently purchased the Comegys farm in the Second District, has purchased the Henry Jump farm in Still Pond Neck, containing 175 acres, and now occupied by Miss Medora Jump. The price is said to have been $10,000. By arrangement with Mr. Smith, Mr. Spencer Comegys will remain on the Comegys farm, and Mr. John A. Duyer, who had rented the Comegys farm will take the Jump farm.

A Street Rumor.—There has been a rumor on the streets during the week to the effect that the strawboard mill has been sold to a number of foreign and local capitalists and that the mill will be opened about September first and run independently of the American Strawboard Mill. Upon hearing the rumor we got in touch with a gentleman who knows what's what, and he informed us that there is "nothing to it" at present, although Mr. Frederick Quantz and two gentlemen had been here looking the field over, and there was talk of a deal. The matter is hanging fire at present, and it may never be consummated. It is reliably stated that no local capital is invested.

State Camp Convention.

The State Camp P. O. S. of A. will hold its annual convention in Chestertown on August 14th and 15th.

Two hundred and fifty delegates from Baltimore and other parts of the State are expected to be present. These will represent each county and most of the towns of the State. A grand time is expected in Chestertown, as the local camp is endeavoring to royally entertain the State organization.

The merchants and residents are much pleased to have this delegation from all parts of the State, and are assisting the P. O. S. of A. by decorating their homes and stores. Chestertown will be in gala dress for the occasion, and we will be glad to have the people of the counties come and take part with their automobiles and horses. From 1500 to 2000 people are expected to be present on Wednesday evening, August 14th, when the State and local P. O. S. of A.'s will parade the town from 7.00 to 8.00 o'clock. The parade will be divided into three divisions—the pedestrians, the horsemen and horsewomen and the automobilists—which will take in the main streets of the town. These participants will come from this and adjoining counties. After the parade, a very interesting and entertaining program will be rendered on the high school lawn. The school building will be appropriately decorated and the lawn trimmed with Japanese lanterns.

Among those taking part in the program will be: W. F. Russell, master of ceremonies; short addresses by the Hon. Wm. T. Warburton, of the Elkton bar; Rev. Andrew B. Wood, National Chaplain of the P. O. S. of A.; Wm. F. Williams, Past State President of the P. O. S. of A., and Wm. James Heaps, Ph. D., State Secretary of the P. O. S. of A. A brass band of not less than fifteen pieces will dispense instrumental music and a choir of 25 or 30 ladies and gentlemen will sing the national and State airs. Come out and help make this one of the greatest conventions ever held in Maryland.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

¶July certainly has leaked.

¶The first colored excursion of the season from Chestertown went to Cambridge on Monday.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson got an average yield of 25 bushels per acre from his tillage of 40 acres.

¶A Delaware grower netted $700 from three acres of gooseberries this season. Can't some farmers in Kent county "catch on?"

¶Hog cholera is again playing havoc with our farmers' hogs. One farmer near Tolchester has lost 50, and others have a number affected.

¶The largest yield of wheat produced this season on the peninsula was grown by Mr. Marvel, near Easton. His tillage amounted to 3 acres, and his yield was 37 bushels per acre.

¶Capt. Edward W. Emory, Mr. George D. Lofland and Mr. Kirk, the popular hardware salesman, caught six dozen fine perch in Chester river on Monday.

¶Tom Taylor's special feature pictures will be the great attraction in Stam's Hall on Saturday evening, Aug. 3. Pictures of the Titanic Disaster will be shown.

¶The storm on Sunday evening is reported to have blown a lady living near the mill out of her front door. The lady was standing in the door at the time the gale was raging.

¶Adbert, the fine 12-year-old stallion formerly owned by Mr. Cooper Tarbutton, of Queen Annes, won the 2.24 trot at Salem, N. J., last Friday. He lowered his mark to 2.23¼.

¶A threshing machine on the Manlove farm was struck by lightning, causing a fire that destroyed the machine and two ricks of straw. The machine belonged to John Singer, of Kent county.

¶Seventy people were present at the mid-week prayer service in Christ M. P. Church on Thursday evening, some of those in attendance coming from Fairlee. The meetings are inspiring and are growing in attendance all the time.

¶Postmaster M. Wilbur Thomas has been named a member of the Transportation and Mr. A. M. Culp, a member of the Legislative Committee by the president of the State Firemen's Association.

¶$120,000,000 was filched from the American people during the last fiscal year by swindlers who operated largely through the United States mails. There were 1,063 arrests made by postoffice inspectors.

¶Mr. William G. Smyth, of Fairlee, has purchased from Mrs. Carolene L. Hynson, through Wm. M. Slay, attorney, the Thomas J. Vickers farm in Broad Neck for $3000. The farm contains 100 acres.

¶The M.E. Sunday school of this town will run a delightful moonlight excursion on the B. S. Ford next Thursday evening. A delightful moon, and a gorgeous trip. See advertisement on another page.

¶The Lyceum Theater and Amusement Company is advertising for proposals from contractors to build a brick theater building 41x121 ft. three stories, on the lot corner Cross and Cannon streets, Chestertown.

¶Dr. Norman S. Dudley, of Church Hill, has purchased the White House farm, near Kennedyville, from the Kent County Land Company. Price private. The farm contains 217 acres and is tenanted by Mr. Wiltbanks, who will remain there.

¶The heavy wind storm on Sunday afternoon tore the roof off one of Mr. Walter T. Morris' silos and twisted it on its foundation, while it tore away a portion of the roof on the other two, and blew down one of his hay ricks.

¶Mr. William T. Crow has rented his Bosee farm in Morgnec to Mr. James Groves' son for next year. Mr. and Mrs. Rambo, who have tenanted the place, will remove to Worton where they own property.

¶Local buyers were paying 93 cents per bushel for wheat yesterday. Weather conditions have been very much against wheat threshing, and there is some danger of wheat sprouting in the shock if the weather does not get settled soon.

¶Mr. Harry R. Graham has rented the part of Mr. T. D. France's double dwelling next to the driveway on High street for next year. Mrs. Richard D. Hynson and family will occupy the Aldridge-Hubbard house on Front street after Jan. 1.

¶Capt. James R. Malone's annual shoot at Betterton this week has attracted large crowds of professional and amateur shooters, as well as numerous visitors. Among the professional shots were John Philip Sousa, the famous band master.

¶A pair of spirited young horses belonging to Mr. E. J. Watson, created some excitement on High street on Tuesday afternoon in a runaway. There was no damage except to the dearborn to which they were hitched. The horses ran straight for home.

¶An automobile run by two strangers was badly wrecked on the State road last Saturday night. The occupants ran the car in a ditch, breaking the steering gear, and wrenching off one of the front wheels. It was hauled to town on Sunday morning and repaired at Sides' garage.

¶The Pomona Grange was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. Harry Griffith in Sassafras on Thursday. The program prepared by the County Lecturer, Mrs. Ada Crew, was profitable and enjoyable, and there was a good attendance of grangers from all parts of the county.

¶Mr. Wm. S. Collins had Dr. G. Allan Jarman to immunize his hogs with cholera serum during the early spring. Mr. Collins has not lost a hog and his herd is looking fine. Nearly every one of his neighbors have suffered heavy losses. They did not use the serum.

¶The Rich Neck Farmers' Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Walker at "Royston," in Queen Annes on Thursday. Prof. Thomas B. Symons was present and conducted an experiment in spraying tomatoes which proved interesting and profitable to the club and its guests.

¶If you want to enjoy a day of real pleasure and interesting sight seeing, you should not fail to go on the Salem M. E. Church excursion on Thursday, August 8th, to Betterton, Havre de Grace and Port Deposit. This is one of the most delightful of all the bay trips and ample time will be given at all the places to see the sights. Boat leaves Tolchester at 10.30 A. M. Go and take the children with you.

¶During the storm on Sunday evening lighting struck a stack of wheat on one of Rev. A. P. Prettyman's farms near Galena, tenanted by Mr. Shaw, and destroyed it. The entire crop was saved by the prompt arrival of some of the citizens of the town, who rendered valuable aid in preventing the spread of the flames to other stacks. Mr. Shaw had just stacked his wheat the day before.

¶A gentleman has been in Chestertown during the week organizing a co-operative creamery company. The plan is to give the farmer as much for his butterfat as the creamery gets for butter so that the profit sharing will be mutual. An effort is also being made by the organizers of the company to encourage the farmers to engage in dairy stock raising more extensively. A similar company has been organized at Centreville and at Wyoming, Del.

¶The heavy wind storm of Sunday evening did considerable damage to shade trees and to corn fields. A large apple tree heavily laden with fine apples in Mr. George B. McWhorter's lot on Washington avenue was uprooted, tree limbs were blown off, shock caps in wheat fields and corn in corn fields were blown down, and there was a heavy downpour of rain, but we have heard of no more serious damage.

¶The Civic Club of Chestertown has placed at convenient places on High street, large green cans of a neat pattern for the holding of paper and waste matter from the stores etc. It is a most commendable thing in the ladies to do this, and it is sincerely hoped that all paper and other rubbish will be placed in these cans which will be empted by the town team. Let the garbage system be patronized.

Fine Peach Crop.

A prominent gentleman in the lower part of the county, who is so modest as to refuse to allow us to use his name, has the good fortune to have a crop of peaches this year which he estimates at between 2000 and 3000 baskets. He has shipped to date 600 baskets and given away 500 baskets. We think his refusal to allow us to disclose his identity is due to his great generosity in providing his friends with such luxuries. Well, here is how it came about that he has given away so many as 500 baskets. The variety which comprised the 500 baskets is known as the Greensboro, and it is ready to ship about the time the finest of the Georgia and southern peaches are going to market. The Kent farmer tested the market on this variety and found that there was no profitable sale for them, so he just opened his orchard to his friends and told them to help themselves, and they did, some of the peaches reaching as far north as Chestertown. Had the gentleman known the fancy price of most any old kind of a peach in Chestertown market—$1 a basket—he may have glutted the market here and put some of his friends who were not able to get to his orchard in a position to get good peaches at a reasonable price. The finest of his varieties are yet to come, and it is from these that the Kent grower expects to reap a substantial profit. He has a fine crop of Mountain Rose and yellow fruit, and while the best price he has gotten for his early peaches is 40 cents per basket, he expects to reach the dollar mark with some of his choice fruit, and here's hoping that he gets a big pile of money out of his crop this year. He deserves it, because he is one of the most generous and thoughtful men in this entire county.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Two Ladies and a Little Boy Make Narrow Escape From Death When Carriage is Upset.

Mrs. M. E. Fowle and sister, Miss Georgia Thumlert, two well-known ladies residing on the Reese-Beck farm in Worton, and a little boy, made a miraculous escape from death on Monday afternoon on the farm of Mr. Walter T. Morris, near town. But for the gentleness of their fine driving horse, some one would undoubtedly have been fatally injured. The ladies had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Morris, having gotten butter and eggs to carry home. They left Mr. Morris' home by the back road expecting to go home through Worton Station. Mr. Morris' cornfield runs up close to the road, and in order to avoid hitting the corn and knocking it down, the ladies were driving close to the fence. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company had planted posts in Mr. Morris' field to mark their boundary lines. The ladies failed to see one of the posts, which the carriage struck with such force that it was overturned; the ladies and little boy were thrown out and dragged some distance before the horse could be stopped. Miss Thumlert sustained a compound fracture of the wrist, a bruised head and a servere nervous shock; Mrs. Fowle was bruised about the face and limbs, and her nerves badly shocked, while the little boy was slightly injured about the head and limbs. The horse got his hind legs caught in a wire and was cut rather badly about the ankles. Had the horse attempted to kick he would have fatally injured some one. The little boy ran to Mr. Morris' home, gave the alarm, and Mr. Morris and his assistant went to the unfortunate ladies' rescue. The carriage was slightly damaged, one of the stays being broken and a bow bent. Mr. Morris assisted the ladies to his home, where everything possible was done for their comfort. Dr. Simpers set the fracture in Miss Thumlert's wrist, and rendered medical assistance, while Mr. Morris bathed the horse's ankle and applied a lotion. The ladies remained over night with Mr. and Mrs. Morris.

Races at Tolchester.

In place of the regular fair at Tolchester this year, the Kent, Queen Annes and Cecil County Fair Association will give a two days' race meet on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27th and 28th. An effort is being made to secure some of the best horses in the east for these two days. The Tolchester meeting follows immediately after the Gentlemen's Driving Park meeting in Baltimore, and some of the races there will be seen at Tolchester. The program of the races is as follows:

FIRST DAY—TUESDAY, AUGUST 27TH.

2.24 Trot	Purse	$250.00
2.23 Pace	"	250.00
2.19 Pace	"	250.00

Trot, open to all horses owned in Kent, Queen Annes and Cecil county on or before July 1, 1912. Purse $200.00.

SECOND DAY—WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28TH.

2.20 Trot	Purse	$250.00
2.15 Pace	"	250.00
2.16 Trot	"	250.00

Pace, conditions same as fourth race, first day. Purse $200.00.

In loving remembrance of our dear Agnes Mae Clough, who left us six months ago, age 13 years 9 months.

In memory I often think
Of the one I loved so dear;
The vision is so sometimes,
I think she must be near.

Do not ask me if I miss her
Oh, there is such a vacant place;
Oft I think I hear her calling,
Or I see her sweet smiling face.

My dear Agnes you have left us
In sorrow, grief and pain,
But soon we hope to meet you,
Never to part again. BY MOTHER.

Oft times while sitting alone
We think our darling must be near;
Her presence cheered and made us glad
But now her absence makes us sad.
BY MOTHER AND HUSBAND.
